The names of potential Jurors shall be drawn from a Jury source list compiled from the poll list of registered voters obtained from the Board of Elections and may be obtained from the Ohio BMV list of Harrison County residents who hold a driver's license. The Jury source list shall be representative and shall be as inclusive of the adult population of Harrison County as is feasible. This Court shall review the Jury source list annually. Should the Court determine, upon review, that the Jury source list is not sufficiently representative and inclusive of the adult population of Harrison County, the Court shall direct appropriate corrective action.

Except as otherwise provided, selection of prospective Jurors from the Jury source list, summoning them for service, assigning them to panels, and calling them for voir dire shall be conducted in a random manner, either manual or automatic, so that every person listed has an equal probability of selection. The method utilized shall be documented by the Clerk of Courts. However, departure from random selection shall be appropriate under the following circumstances:

- (A) To exclude persons ineligible for service in accordance with these rules;
- (B) To remove prospective Jurors for cause or if challenged peremptorily;
- (C) To provide all prospective Jurors with an opportunity to be called for Jury Service and to be assigned to a panel;

All persons on the Jury source list shall be eligible for service except:

- (A) Persons under the age of 18 years;
- (B) Persons who are not U.S. citizens;
- (C) Persons who are not residents of Harrison County;
- (D) Persons who are not fluent in the English language; and
- (E) Convicted felons who have not had their civil rights restored.

Persons summoned for petit Jury service shall remain on a panel until:

- (A) Their services are no longer deemed necessary by the Court;
- (B) The term of Court has ended;
- (C) Said Juror has been summoned and has reported for service two (2) times without serving;
- (D) Said Juror has served at least two (2) consecutive Trial days in one (1) Trial; or
- (E) Said Juror has served a total of two (2) or more Trial days regardless of the number of Trials.

All Persons on the Jury source list shall be exempt, excused or deferred from Jury Service, in the discretion of the Court or the Jury Commissioners or their authorized representative. Request for exemption, excuse, or deferral of service shall be made in writing.

Exemptions from Jury Service are as follows:

Voir dire examination shall be limited to matters relevant to determining whether to remove a Juror for cause and to determine the Juror's fairness and impartiality. Juror questionnaires may be submitted by the attorneys, with the approval of the Court, and may be ordered by the court on an individual case basis.

Upon Motion or Sua Sponte, if the Court determines during the Jury Selection process that a prospective Juror is unable or unwilling to hear the matter fairly and impartially, the Court shall excuse that person for cause.

The exercise of peremptory challenges shall be governed by the law of the State of Ohio.

During the voir dire examination, counsel shall not argue their case in any manner; nor shall they engage in efforts to indoctrinate the Jurors; nor shall they ask questions concerning anticipated instructions or theories of law, except for general questioning on the validity and philosophy of the burden of proof and presumption of innocence; Jurors shall not be asked what kind of Verdict they would return under any circumstances. Questions that may be put to the panel of the prospective Jurors as a whole must be asked in that fashion.

The responsibility for administering the Jury System shall be vested in a Court Administrator acting under the supervision of the Administrative Judge and in conjunction with the Jury Commissioners. Pursuant to the above authorization, the Court Administrator shall issue the notice summoning prospective Jurors, Juror Questionnaires, and written requests for exemption, excuse or deferral, which documents shall be in a form approved by the Court and delivered by ordinary mail with readily understandable explanations for completion of the forms, return of the forms, and the consequences for failure to do so. Said explanation shall clearly advise each prospective Juror of their right to request an in-camera hearing to determine whether their legitimate private interests warrant non-disclosure of their written responses in their Questionnaires. Any person summoned for Jury service who fails to appear without exemption, excuse, or deferral shall be summoned to show cause as to why that person should not be held in contempt.

The Court shall collect and analyze information regarding the performance of the Jury System on an annual basis, but not later than December of each calendar year, in order to evaluate:

- (B) The effectiveness of the qualification and summoning procedures;

- (C) The responsiveness of individual citizens to Jury duty summons;
- (D) The efficient use of Jurors;
- (E) The cost effectiveness of the Jury Management System.

The Court shall utilize the service of Jurors in such a manner as to achieve optimum use and minimum inconvenience. To that end, the Court shall determine the minimum number of prospective Jurors necessary to accommodate Trial activity. Until a prospective Juror has been selected by the Court to participate in a Trial activity, the information contained in the Juror Questionnaires shall not be subject to release to the public, since the presumption of openness does not apply until the minimum number of Jurors needed to accommodate the prospective Trial has been Ordered by the Court.

The Court shall provide an adequate and suitable environment for Jurors. Clear directions for the time, place, and manner of checking in and information on parking shall be given to prospective Jurors in advance. The Jury deliberation room shall include space, furnishings and facilities conducive to reaching a fair verdict. The safety and security of the deliberation room shall be insured. To the extent feasible, Jury facilities and procedures shall minimize contact between the Jurors, parties, witnesses, counsel and the public.

Persons called for Jury duty shall receive a reasonable fee for their services and expenses in accord with ORC §2313.34 and appropriate resolution of the Board of County Commissioners of Harrison County, Ohio. Such fee shall be promptly paid.

In accord with ORC §2313.18, employers shall be prohibited from discharging, laying off, denying advancement opportunities to or otherwise penalizing the employees who miss work because of Jury service. Whoever violates ORC §2313.18 and/or any provision of this Local Rule shall be punished as and for Contempt of Court pursuant to Chapter 2705 of the Revised Code.

The Court shall be responsible for providing instructions that are readily understood by individuals unfamiliar with the law and the legal system to prospective Jurors appearing pursuant to summons. The Trial Judge shall:

- (A) Provide preliminary instructions to all prospective Jurors;
- (B) Provide instructions at the commencement of voir dire and/or immediately following the empanelling of the Jury to explain the Jurors' role, the Trial procedure, the nature of evidence and its evaluation, the issues to be addressed and basic legal

A Jury shall be sequestered only for good cause. Good cause includes insulating members of a Jury from improper information or influence. The Trial Judge shall have discretion to sequester a Jury on motion or sua sponte and shall have the responsibility to set and manage the conditions of sequestration in order to achieve the purpose and to minimize the inconvenience and discomfort of Jurors. Prior to a fiduciary entering into a contingent fee contract with an attorney for services, an application for authority to enter into the agreement shall be filed with the Court.

Computation of Attorney's fees shall be filed with the Court on a form provided by the Court (Attached hereto as Appendix A) or in like or similar form providing the requested information and securing the appropriate signatures.

An application by executors and administrators for extraordinary commission need not be filed where all the interested parties have consented in writing to the amount of executor's or administrator's commissions and the consent is endorsed on the final account or evidenced by separate instrument filed therewith.

RULE 53 GUARDIAN'S COMPENSATION

A. Guardian's compensation shall be set by local rule (See paragraph F) and the schedule of compensation set forth in the local rule shall be filed with the Supreme Court in accordance with CAP. Sup. R. 44.

B. Additional compensation, reimbursement for expenses incurred and fees of a guardian of a person may be fixed by the Court upon application.

C. The Court may require that applications for fees or compensation be set for hearing and that written notice of the time and place of the hearing and the amount applied for be given as required by the Court. A copy of the notice, with certified mail return receipt attached, together with an affidavit of the service of such notice, shall be filed prior to the hearing.

D. The compensation of co-guardians in the aggregate shall not exceed the compensation which would have been payable if only one guardian had been performing the duties.

E. A separate schedule of the computation of the guardian's compensation shall be set forth in the guardian's account as a condition of its approval. The computation shall be on a form (see Appendix C) as set forth in conformity with a local rule adopted and filed in accordance with CAP. Sup.R. 44. Except for good cause shown, neither compensation for a guardian nor fees to the attorney representing the guardian will be allowed when the guardian is delinquent in filing the account as required by ORC §2109.30.

F. Unless otherwise provided by law or ordered by the Court, a guardian may charge annually for his ordinary services an amount computed in accordance with the following schedule:

- (1) Income fee: 5% of the gross income plus an additional 2% of the gross income attributable to real estate, chargeable to income; the Court reserves the right to increase or decrease this percentage as deemed appropriate.
- (2) Principal Fee: $3.00 per $1000.00 on the first $100,000; $2.50 per $1000.00 on the next $200,000 and $1.50 per $1000.00 on the balance; of the fair market value of the corpus, annually chargeable to principal unless otherwise ordered.
- (3) Such guardian may, with the approval of the Court, be allowed a principal distribution fee upon the final distribution of any part of the corpus of the guardianship property equal to one percent (1%) of the fair value of the part distributed, and the amount shall be charged against and deducted from such distribution or payment.

A minimum annual fee of $300.00 will be allowed in each guardianship.

For purposes of determining compensation based on income, the following shall NOT be considered income:

- (a) Receipt of corpus by guardian;
- (b) Balances carried forward from one accounting period to another, and;
- (c) Investment and reinvestment of corpus, including conversion of corpus to cash.

For purposes of computing the compensations herein provided, the fair market value of the principal of the trust property shall be determined by the guardian as of the date of his appointment and as of each anniversary thereafter. The compensation so determined may be charged during the ensuing year. The annual fair market value of the principal shall be adjusted from time to time to reflect additions to and withdrawals from the principal of the trust estate, and the compensation for the remaining portion of the annual period shall be similarly adjusted to reflect such revised valuation.

Additional compensation for extraordinary services or allowance of expenses of a guardian; and the compensation of guardian of person only may be allowed upon application to the Court.

B. Additional compensation for extraordinary services may be allowed upon application. The Court may require that the application be set for hearing and that notice thereof be given to interested persons. Such notice shall contain a statement of the amount for which compensation is applied.

C. A separate schedule of the computation of a trustee's compensation, conforming to the form in conformity with a local rule adopted and filed in accordance with C.P. Sup. R.44, shall be filed with the Court at the time of payment of the fee.

D. The compensation of co-trustees in the aggregate shall not exceed the compensation which would have been paid if only one trustee had been performing the duties except where the instrument under which the co-trustees are acting provides otherwise.

E. Except for good cause shown, neither compensation for a trustee, nor fees to the counsel representing the trustee, will be allowed while the trustee is delinquent in the account or accounting required by ORC §2109.30.

G. Except where the instrument creating the trust makes provision for compensation, unless otherwise provided by statute or ordered by the Court, a testamentary trustee may charge annually for ordinary services performed in connection with the administration of each separate trust estate an amount computed in accordance with the following schedule:

- (1) Income Fee: 5% of the gross income plus an additional 2% of gross income attributable to real estate rentals where the fiduciary is managing such real estate, chargeable to income;
- (2) Principal Fee: $3.00 per $1,000 on the first $100,000.00; $2.50 per $1,000 on the next $200,000.00; and $1.50 per $1,000 on the balance of the fair market value of the corpus, annually chargeable to principal unless otherwise ordered.
- (3) Such trustee may, with the approval of the Court, be allowed a principal distribution fee upon the final distribution of any part of the corpus of the trust property equal to one percent (1%) of the fair value of the part distributed, and the amount shall be charged against and

The compensation so determined may be charged during the ensuing year. The annual fair market value of the principal shall be adjusted from time to time to reflect additions to and withdrawals from the principal of the trust estate, and the compensation for the remaining portion of the annual period shall be similarly adjusted to reflect such revised valuation.

Additional compensation for extraordinary services of a trustee may be allowed upon application to the Court. The Court reserves the right to increase or decrease this percentage as deemed appropriate.

H. COMPUTATION OF TRUSTEE'S FEE; FORM. The form to be filed pursuant to C.P. Sup. R. 43 (C) for computation of trustee's compensation shall be substantially as set forth in Appendix D.

RULE 55 EXCEPTION TO THE RULES

Upon application, and for good cause shown, the probate division of the Court of Common Pleas may grant exception to C.P. Sup. R. 18-46.

RULE 56 PRE-DEATH PROBATE OF WILL DECLARATORY JUDGMENT PROCEDURE AND FORM OF COMPLAINT

The Complaint need not name as parties defendant any persons beyond the scope of ORC §2107.081 (A) even though parties named in a prior will may not be necessary parties (see ORC §2107.081 (A)), they may be proper parties.

Deposit the original Will with the appropriate Court official who will record the Will in a special index for deposited Wills.

A Civil Action must then be filed with a request for Service, and the required deposit.

The Court shall index and docket this action in the same manner as any other Civil Action.

The Application and Entry for Appointment of Guardian ad Litem for minor and incompetent parties must now be filed. If there is a unanimous waiver, or the attorney so desires, the cause will be set for hearing.

The Court will issue Summons and Notice of Hearing (if date is set) to all parties, attaching a copy of the complaint.

Unless previously set, then 28 days after all parties are properly served, the cause will be set for hearing. The Court shall notify all parties of said hearing.

At the hearing:

- a. Appearances and testimony as to plaintiff's competency.
- b. Civil Rules apply to medical or psychiatric examinations. See ORC §35. A deposit is required.
- c. The Court may enter a consent final judgment.
- d. Upon being satisfied that the Will is properly executed, the Court may grant Default Judgment.
- e. The Will must be examined openly by the Court.
- f. Execution may be found proper by the Court if it appears from the face of the Will that its execution complies with the law of Ohio in force at the time of execution, pursuant to ORC §2107.28.

The Court, if the Will is found valid, prepares and files duplicate original Entries. One of the Entries is sealed with the Will in an envelope to be secured by the Court, and the other is public record in the Court file.

At the plaintiff's death, the Will shall be offered for Probate and the usual admission procedures followed. There is some debate as to the extent to which a Will should remain confidential in an action for declaratory judgment. One view would have the Will remain confidential from the defendants because a testator should have the right to make a Will that remains private until his death.

Furthermore, a testator may not wish to avail himself on this action due to his wish that the beneficiaries and bequests of his Will remain confidential especially from the heirs who have been excluded. Also, the testator's testamentary capacity and freedom from undue influence should be proved upon evidence other than the Will itself.

Another view would have the Will made available to defendants upon the filing of the Complaint or thereafter by discovery under the Civil Rules. Proponents of this view argue that defendants have a constitutional right to view the Will. In addition, the Will should be available as evidence of testamentary capacity and freedom from undue influence.

This Court adopts the position that the testator has the right to have the Will remain confidential unless otherwise ordered. The determination of testamentary capacity is not anticipated to be necessary to be determined from examining the Will or dispositive provisions thereof.

APPENDIX D

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS, HARRISON COUNTY, OHIO PARENTING TIME GUIDELINES

Parenting time is a time for children to do things with the parent with whom they do not live. Activities that you do with them or skills you can teach them help the time be rewarding and enriching. Encouraging the children to find friends in your neighborhood also helps make it like home for them. Children clearly profit by continued meaningful contact with both parents. Children need the continuing and regular involvement of both parents to feel loved. No specific schedule will satisfy the change in needs of both children and parents over the years. Critical to the success of any schedule is that each parent be flexible, based upon the changing needs of the child, as the child grows older.

This Guideline Parenting Schedule takes into account the changing developmental needs of children. This schedule represents the minimum requirements for parenting time. It is each party's responsibility to tailor this schedule as necessary to meet the best interest of their child(ren). It is recognized that each situation and each child is different. Liberal parenting time arrangements are encouraged, as contact with both parents is important to the children. Absent such agreement each party shall follow these requirements. Specific items in each case's Order take precedence over this schedule as the court will strive to adopt a parenting schedule that is in the child(ren)'s best interests. Changes or modifications can be made by the court if need for such is shown. Any request to deviate from the following parenting schedule shall be supported by the filing of the proper motion.

NO PARENT IS PERMITTED TO MAKE PARENTING TIME ARRANGEMENTS OR MODIFY ORDERED PARENTING TIME ARRANGEMENTS DIRECTLY WITH THE CHILD(REN). THE PARENTS MUST PERSONALLY DISCUSS ANY ISSUES OR CONFLICTS INVOLVING PARENTING TIME WITHOUT USING THE CHILD(REN) AS INTERMEDIARY/INTERMEDIARIES.

APPENDIX E

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS, HARRISON COUNTY, OHIO PARENTING TIME GUIDELINES LONG DISTANCE COMPANIONSHIP

Parenting time is a time for children to do things with the parent with whom they do not live. Activities that you do with them or skills you can teach them help the time be rewarding and enriching. Encouraging the children to find friends in your neighborhood also helps make it like home for them. Children clearly profit by continued meaningful contact with both parents. Children need the continuing and regular involvement of both parents to feel loved. No specific schedule will satisfy the change in needs of both children and parents over the years. Critical to the success of any schedule is that each parent be flexible, based upon the changing needs of the child, as the child grows older.

This Guideline Parenting Schedule takes into account the changing developmental needs of children. This schedule represents the minimum requirements for parenting time. It is each party's responsibility to tailor this schedule as necessary to meet the best interest of their child(ren). It is recognized that each situation and each child is different. Liberal parenting time arrangements are encouraged, as contact with both parents is important to the children. Absent such agreement each party shall follow these requirements. Specific items in each case's Order take precedence over this schedule as the court will strive to adopt a parenting schedule that is in the child(ren)'s best interests. Changes or modifications can be made by the court if need for such is shown. Any request to deviate from the following parenting schedule shall be supported by the filing of the proper motion.

NO PARENT IS PERMITTED TO MAKE PARENTING TIME ARRANGEMENTS OR MODIFY ORDERED PARENTING TIME ARRANGEMENTS DIRECTLY WITH THE CHILD(REN). THE PARENTS MUST PERSONALLY DISCUSS ANY ISSUES OR CONFLICTS INVOLVING PARENTING TIME WITHOUT USING THE CHILD(REN) AS INTERMEDIARY/INTERMEDIARIES.

II. REASONABLE PARENTING TIME: This guideline schedule shall be considered reasonable parenting time. Additional parenting time arranged between the parents is strongly encouraged.

Except as otherwise explicitly provided in this Order, when the non-residential parent resides more than 30 miles from the residence of the child, the

The residential parent shall send with the child(ren) on parenting time, clean clothing appropriate to the season and sufficient to last the entire parenting time period. The residential parent shall send sufficient bottles and all prescription or non-prescription medication taken by the child(ren) along with written instructions for the administration of the same and the name and telephone number of the physician. APPENDIX F
IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF HARRISON COUNTY, OHIO
JUVENILE DIVISION

IN THE MATTER OF:

Case No.

PUBLIC ACCESS TO ABUSE, NEGLECT,
DEPENDENCY CASES

JUDGMENT ENTRY

The Court finds that pursuant to Ohio Rule of Superintendence 45 (E) that the Court can restrict public access to case documents if it finds by clear and convincing evidence that the presumption of public access is outweighed by a higher interest after considering the following:

- a) Whether public policy is served by restricting public access;
- b) Whether any state, federal, or common law exempts the document or information from public access;
- c) Whether factors that support restriction of public access exist, including risk of injury to persons, individual privacy rights and interests, proprietary business information, public safety, and fairness of the adjudicatory process.

The Court finds that abuse, neglect, dependency cases have historically been considered nonpublic due to the sensitive nature of the proceedings. The damage to families and children due to the prejudicial nature of the proceeding outweighs the value of public access to such cases. The Court finds that the Rule recognizes these issues by specifically referring to these types of cases in its definition of “Personal identifiers”. Furthermore, the Court’s attempt to comply with the Rule by using initials has created confusion and an undue burden in the administration of these cases.

Bases upon the above findings finds by clear and convincing evidence that all abuse, neglect, and dependency cases should be restricted from access by the public. The Court may Order a specific case to be a public record upon a Motion and good cause shown.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT all Abuse, neglect, and dependency cases shall be restricted from public access unless specifically Ordered by the Court after Motion and good cause shown.
