Counsel should be prepared at the conference to enter into a joint pre-trial statement and binding case management schedule setting forth the possibility or probability of settlement, facts which can be stipulated and those remaining in contention, special legal issues, if any, and a time-table for the amendment of pleadings, the filing of motions, the exchange of expert witness reports and medical and hospital records, the termination of discovery and the trial of the action.

- B. If a Plaintiff fails to move for a separate trial on the claim for money damages and fails to present evidence on the issue at the forcible entry and detainer hearing, such claim shall be dismissed sua sponte without prejudice for lack of prosecution.
- C. In cases in which the Court has issued a writ of restitution in actions in forcible entry and detainer, it shall be the responsibility of the Plaintiff or his agents to provide for the actual moving out of the Defendant from the residence premises, including the post move-out storage of any personal property of the Defendant. The Court's Bailiff shall schedule the move-out and shall actually be in attendance at the time of the execution of the writ of restitution but shall not make advance arrangements for movers or actually conduct the move-out. Nothing in this rule shall prevent a party from recovering the costs of restitution of premises as damages or court costs in an appropriate case pursuant to law.

Rule No. 10 – Judgment Entries – Notice to Parties and Counsel

A. Notice

Within three (3) days of the journalization of any judgment entry or order, the Clerk of Court shall serve notice of the entry or order upon every party who is not in default for failure to appear in a manner provided in Civil Rule 5. In general, this will mean service via ordinary U. S. Mail upon the party's attorney, or if the party is a pro se litigant, upon the party himself or herself.

B. Docket Notation

The Clerk shall make a notation in the case docket indicating that the required service has been made.

C. Notice Deemed to Be Served

D. Final Appealable Orders

The purpose of this rule is to comply with the dictates of the Supreme Court of the State of Ohio contained in Atkinson vs Grumann Ohio Corp. (1988), 37 Ohio St. 3d 80. The obligation to distinguish between interlocutory orders and final, appealable orders, however is with the parties and their counsel and not with the Clerk or Deputy Clerks of this Court.

In cases where there is a request for service by publication pursuant to Civil Rule 4.4, the Clerk shall cause service of notice to be made by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the County pursuant to Rule 4.4. The Clerk shall notify the publisher that the payment of the cost of the publication shall be the responsibility of the Plaintiff. Payment arrangements shall be made directly by the Plaintiff with the publisher without the Court assessing the publication costs as costs of suit or without the requirement of an advanced deposit by the Plaintiff to the Court for payment of the publication costs. Nothing in this rule shall prevent a party from recovering the costs of publication as damages or court costs in an appropriate case pursuant to law.
