Course Description. This training is an advanced training that will cover all aspects of family law mediation. Upon completion of the training, participants will be able to analyze the conflict dynamics in a family conflict in terms of relationship issues, data problems, values, disputes, structural constraints; demonstrate active listening skills to determine interests and reframe disputants' statements in order to facilitate effective problem-solving; describe the needs of children and the unique needs of divorcing and separating parents in helping the parents create a parenting plan; manage difficult situations in family law mediation such as impasse, emotional clients, and angry clients; draft a Memorandum of Understanding which is clear, comprehensive and coherent and reflects the agreements of the parties; and explain the relevant Ohio law and rules associated with mediating family law cases including allocation of parental functions and responsibilities, child support, spousal support, and the financial aspects of settlement. Additionally, the course provides skills based training relevant to mediating in other family contexts such as in child protection, truancy, and guardianship cases.

Pre-requisites: 1) Basic Mediation Training (minimum 12 hours) AND
2) Uniform Mediation Act Training (minimum of 2 hours)
