

SUPREME COURT OF OHIO
COLUMBUS

ANNOUNCEMENT

FRIDAY
March 30, 2001

MOTION DOCKET

00-495. State v. Iacona.

Medina App. No. 2891-M. This cause is pending before the court upon our allowance of discretionary review. On review of the record before the court,

IT IS NOTICED that neither copy of the trial transcript forwarded to this court contains an App.R. 9(B) certification by the official court reporter.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, sua sponte, that, within twenty days of this entry, the parties brief the following issue:

“Whether, pursuant to App.R. 9, the trial transcript is part of the record on appeal.”

The brief shall not exceed ten numbered pages, exclusive of the table of contents, the table of authorities cited, and the appendix. No responsive brief may be filed.

Resnick, J., dissents in part because she would permit responsive briefs.

DISCIPLINARY DOCKET

99-1162. Cuyahoga Cty. Bar Assn. v. Nigolian.

On March 16, 2001, relator filed a reply to the response to the show cause order. There are no provisions for filing such a document, and prior leave to file the document was not sought. Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED by the court that the reply to the response to the show cause order be, and hereby is, stricken.
