DISCIPLINARY CASES

2004-1799. Toledo Bar Assn. v. Lowden.

On May 18, 2005, this court imposed a two-year suspension upon respondent. The suspension was stayed on condition that respondent continue his mental health treatment, provide quarterly reports to relator, and make restitution in the Miller matter within 90 days of the order. On December 1, 2005, relator, Toledo Bar Association, filed a motion for show cause order and to lift the stay of respondent's suspension asserting that respondent has failed to comply with the conditions of the stay of his suspension. Upon consideration thereof,

It is ordered by the court that the motion is granted to the extent that respondent show cause by filing a written response with the Clerk of this court on or before 20 days from the date of this order why the stay should not be lifted and respondent ordered to serve the two-year suspension.

It is further ordered that respondent show cause, in writing on or before 20 days from the date of this order, why he should not be held in contempt and suspended for failing to pay Board costs, as ordered, within 90 days of the court's May 18, 2005, order.

It is further ordered, sua sponte, that all document filed with this court in this case shall meet the filing requirements set forth in the Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio, including requirements as to form, number, and timeliness of filings.
