MOTION AND PROCEDURAL RULINGS

In re Sherrills. On March 31, 2008, this court found Daries Sherills to be a vexatious litigator under S.Ct.Prac.R. XIV(5)(B). This court further ordered that Sherrills was prohibited from continuing or instituting legal proceedings in this court without first obtaining leave. On April 20, 2009, Sherrills submitted a request for leave to file and for removal of sanctions as a vexatious litigator, a request for leave to file an appeal of the judgment entry of March 30, 2009, and a request for leave to file an appeal. Upon consideration thereof,

It is ordered by the court that the requests for leave are denied.
