MOTION AND PROCEDURAL RULINGS

In re Sherrills.

On March 31, 2008, this court found Daries Sherrills to be a vexatious litigator under S.Ct.Prac.R. XIV(5)(B). This court further ordered that Sherrills was prohibited from continuing or instituting legal proceedings in this court without first obtaining leave. On August 7, 2009, Sherrills submitted a request for leave and to obtain leave to file viable claims. Upon review of the proffered document the court finds it without merit. Accordingly,
