MOTION AND PROCEDURAL RULINGS

In re Parker.

On March 4, 2010, this court found Deborah A. Parker to be a vexatious litigator under S.Ct.Prac.R. 14.5(B). This court further ordered that Parker was prohibited from filing an affidavit of disqualification without first seeking leave. On March 22, 2010, Parker submitted a motion for leave to file an affidavit of disqualification. Upon review of the proffered documents the court finds them without merit. Accordingly,

It is ordered by the court that Deborah A. Parker's motion for leave is denied.

In re Karnofel.

On February 10, 2010, this court found Delores Karnofel to be a vexatious litigator under S.Ct.Prac.R. 14.5(B). This court further ordered that Karnofel was prohibited from continuing or instituting legal proceedings in this court without first obtaining leave. On March 25, 2010, Karnofel submitted a motion for leave to proceed. Upon review of the proffered document the court finds it without merit. Accordingly,

It is ordered by the court that Delores Karnofel's motion for leave is denied.

DISCIPLINARY CASES

2007-1547. Cleveland Bar Assn. v. Kraus.

This cause came on for further consideration upon respondent's filing of an application for reinstatement on March 8, 2010. On March 15, 2010, relator filed a response to the application and a motion to file exhibits under seal. Upon consideration thereof,

It is ordered by the court that the motion to file exhibits under seal is granted. It is further ordered that the exhibits to relator's response are sealed.
