MOTION AND PROCEDURAL RULINGS

2012-1653. In re Judicial Campaign Complaint Against O'Toole.

This matter came on for further consideration upon the filing by respondent, Colleen O'Toole, of a motion for stay of the imposition of sanctions pending appeal to this court.

Upon consideration of the motion for stay, it is ordered by this court that the motion is granted in part. The payment of the fine in the amount of $1,000, costs in the amount of $2,530.82, and attorney fees in the amount of $2,500 ordered by the five-judge commission in its October 24, 2012 order is stayed pending the disposition of respondent's appeal.

Pfeifer and Lanzinger, JJ., concur in part and dissent in part and would grant the motion to stay in its entirety.

Cupp, J., not participating.

2012-1653. In re Judicial Campaign Complaint Against O'Toole.

This cause came on for further consideration upon the filing by respondent, Colleen O'Toole, of a notice of appeal. On consideration thereof, it is ordered by the court that respondent shall file any objections to the sanctions issued by the five-judge commission, together with a brief in support thereof, on or before 15 days from the date of this order. It is further ordered that complainant shall file an answer brief on or before 15 days after any brief in support of objections has been filed.

It is further ordered, sua sponte, that all documents filed with this court in this case shall meet the filing requirements set forth in the Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio, including requirements as to form, number, and timeliness of filings and further that unless clearly inapplicable, the Rules of Practice shall apply to these proceedings. All documents are subject to Sup.R. 44 through 47, which govern access to court records.

It is further ordered, sua sponte, that service shall be deemed made on respondent by sending this order, and all other orders in this case, to respondent's last known address.
