- vs -	:
TRI-STATE CONSTRUCTION,	:
Defendant-Appellant.	:

Civil appeal from the Newton Falls Municipal Court, Case No. 04 CVI 00092.

Judgment: Appeal dismissed.

James R. Scher, Ohlin, Ohlin & Scher Co., LPA, 309 Washington Street, N.E., Warren, OH 44483 (For Plaintiff-Appellee).

Tri-State Construction, c/o William W. Bridge, III, pro se, P.O. Box 214, Wickliffe, OH 44092 (For Defendant-Appellant).

JUDITH A. CHRISTLEY, J.

{¶1} On August 5, 2004, appellant, Tri-State Construction, filed a notice of appeal from a July 12, 2004 judgment of the Newton Falls Municipal Court. In that judgment, the trial court dismissed the case for improper venue.

{¶2} It is well established that a judgment dismissing a case for improper venue is not a final appealable order. State ex rel. Allied Chemical Co. v. Aurelius (1984), 16 Ohio App.3d 69; Snell v. Cincinnati St. Ry. Co. (1899), 60 Ohio St. 256.

{¶3} Accordingly, this appeal is hereby sua sponte dismissed due to lack of a final appealable order. We also note that William W. Bridge, III, who is not an attorney, is prohibited from representing a corporation in an appeal. A layperson can only represent themselves on appeal, and not another party. Vizzini v. Nichols, 11th Dist. No. 2003-P-0085, 2003-Ohio-6225.

Appeal dismissed.
