{¶1} This case was tried to a magistrate of the court. On September 27, 2002, the magistrate issued a decision recommending judgment for defendant.

{¶2} Civ.R. 53 states: "Within 14 days of the filing of a magistrate's decision, a party may file written objections to the magistrate's decision." Plaintiff did not file his objections until October 25, 2002, 28 days after the filing of the magistrate's decision. Plaintiff's objections were not timely filed and are hereby STRICKEN.

{¶3} Upon review, the court determines that there is no error of law or other defect on the face of the magistrate's decision. Therefore, the court adopts the magistrate's decision and recommendation as its own. Judgment is rendered in favor of defendant. Court costs are assessed against plaintiff. The clerk shall serve upon all parties notice of this judgment and its date of entry upon the journal.
