ENTRY OF DISMISSAL

{¶ 1} On September 11, 2008, plaintiff, James Thompson, doing business as Thompson Machine and Tool, filed a complaint against defendant, Department of Transportation. On October 8, 2008, this court issued an entry requiring the plaintiff to retain an attorney to represent the corporate entity, have the attorney file a notice of appearance and submit an amended complaint. The plaintiff was also required to either submit the $25 filing fee or a poverty statement. On October 24, 2008, the plaintiff filed an amended complaint along with the $25 filing fee. However, the plaintiff did not retain an attorney to represent the corporate entity. In accordance with the Supreme Court holding in *Union Savings Assn. v.
