SUMMARY OF SPONSOR OBLIGATIONS

IMPORTANT: Live Interactive Webinars are considered Self-Study Activities. Pursuant to CCLE Regulation 409.1 (B) Attorneys and Judges may not apply on their own behalf for accreditation of Self-Study Activities.

A Sponsor seeking approval of a Live Interactive Webinar shall submit an application for accreditation no later than 30 days after the date of initial availability of the Self-Study activity (Regulation 409.1(B)).

This application for accreditation shall be accompanied by:

- A short synopsis or outline of the subject matter of the program, including a statement regarding whether or not any regulatory material or case law will be discussed (Regulation 409.1(C)(1)).
- Names and qualifications of the speakers and the agenda with a detailed time schedule (Regulation 409.1(C)(2)).
- A written statement MUST be included describing the methods of interactivity in detail. To qualify as a live interactive webinar there must be at least two means of interactivity that include simultaneous live interaction with the presenter.

Examples of live interactivity may include direct audience participation and audience response techniques such as:

- Ask a question (must be able to interact with the live presenter)
  - Interactivity via chat room accessible by the presenters and other program attendees
  - Participants can make real-time comments and interact
  - Presenters can share desktop applications and documents
  - Real-time polling
  - Real-time survey
  - Live Q & A session
- Variance Request. If the program is closed to outside attendees (those not associated with the sponsor) submit a written statement explaining/detailing the reason the program is being closed.

By accepting accreditation of a live interactive webinar, a Sponsor agrees to:

- Inform the Attorney or Judge purchasing the self-study program of the twenty-four (24) hour limitation on Live Interactive Webinars (Gov. Bar R. X, Sec. 5 (E)(2)).
- Electronically submit within 30 days of the activity CLE credit for each Attorney or Judge who has successfully completed the activity (Regulation 409.1(F)).
- The Sponsor shall retain attendance records for two years following the completion of each Self-Study activity (Regulation 409.1(F)).
- Advise the Commission within 30 days if any material change has been made in the program format or subject matter, or a change in internet service providers (Regulation 409.1(G)).
- By submitting the requests for CLE credit, the Sponsor certifies that each Attorney or Judge requesting credit has submitted the mandatory evaluation, has obtained the minimum competency, and has actually participated in the activity (Regulation 409.1(I)).
- Provide participants with mandatory evaluation forms, with evaluation data submitted to the Commission every six months upon request (Regulation 409.1(L)).
- Comply with all of Ohio's Rules and Regulations including any amendments thereto.
