CLERK OF COURT

Miller is the defendant in this felony criminal case, appearing pro se in this action for a claim for relief grounded in the notion that he is either a “corporate entity” or a “fictional entity” and therefore a “party in interest” who is “Making a Special Ministerial Right’s Ab-Initio Sui-juris in the Public Challenge of Authority/Jurisdiction,” according to his latest pleading in this matter. The State of Ohio is represented by the Morrow County Prosecutor’s Office, which has filed an Answer containing a Motion to Strike and for Judgment on the Pleadings and a Motion for Summary Judgment on the Counterclaim to determine and declare that the Defendant is a vexatious litigator under Ohio law, Ohio Revised Code 2323.51 et seq.

The defendant did not file a brief in opposition to the State’s motion prior to the due date of May 7, 2020. The Court finds and determines that:

1. The parties have received proper and effective service of the pleadings filed herein by both the Plaintiff and the Defendant.

2. Even construing the material allegations of the Defendant’s pleading as true, the Defendant can prove no set of facts that would entitle him to relief. As such, the State of Ohio’s motion for Judgment on the Pleadings pursuant to Rule 12(C) of the Ohio Rules of Civil Procedure is hereby granted.

3. There is no genuine issue of material fact with regard to the State of Ohio’s Counterclaim to declare the Defendant a Vexatious Litigator pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 2323.51 et seq. inasmuch as reasonable minds can come to but one conclusion, which is that the Defendant has engaged in vexatious conduct by “making a special ministerial right’s ab-initio sui-juris in the public challenge of authority/jurisdiction” filed in this Court on March 30, 2020, as the uncontested evidence shows that such pleadings have no authority to support a lawful basis for his claims, which are incomprehensible and illogical. The Court had ruled on November 29, 2016 that the Defendant had engaged in incomprehensible and frivolous conduct by filing similar incomprehensible and illogical pleadings in this case while he was serving a prison sentence imposed by this Court. The repeating nature of this behavior compels the Court to declare the Defendant to be a Vexatious Litigator and to report this determination to the Supreme Court of Ohio.

4. The State has established its right to relief pursuant to R.C. 2323.51 and 2323.52 et seq. and the Motion for Summary Judgment is hereby granted.

5. Therefore, the Defendant, Jeffrey Alan Miller, is found and determined to be a vexatious litigator under Ohio law and it is therefore ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that he should be, and is hereby is prohibited from:

(A) Instituting any legal proceeding in the court of claims, or in a court of common pleas, municipal court, county court, court of appeals, or the Supreme Court of Ohio without first obtaining leave of this Court to proceed;

(B) Continuing any legal proceeding that he has instituted or participated in the Morrow County Court of Common Pleas and other courts of this State to the extent permissible prior to the entry of this Order;

(C) Making any application, other than an application for leave to proceed under R.C. 2323.52(F) and (4) or any other relief provided in R.C. 2323.52, as this Court may deem just and proper.

6. The defendant shall pay all costs of this action.

IT IS SO ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED.

This is a final, appealable order. The Clerk of Courts is ordered to serve upon all the parties notice of this judgment and its date of entry upon the journal within three (3) days of entering the judgment upon the journal. The Clerk shall serve the parties in a manner prescribed in Civil Rule 5(B) and note the service in the appearance docket.
