THE NEW SPECIALIZED DOCKETS STANDARDS

SUPREME COURT ADOPTS SPECIALIZED DOCKETS STANDARDS

The Supreme Court of Ohio has adopted a new rule that allows local courts to receive Supreme Court certification of a specialized docket. The rule takes effect on Jan. 1, 2013. The rule allows a court operating or establishing a particular session of court to apply for certification of the session from the Supreme Court. The session must offer a therapeutically oriented judicial approach to providing court supervision and appropriate treatment to individuals placed in it. Upon receipt of Supreme Court certification, the session may be referred to as a “specialized docket.” Since the establishment of the Hamilton County Drug Court in 1995, Ohio has been recognized as a national leader in the implementation of specialized dockets. In 2001, the Supreme Court created the Specialized Dockets Section to assist and support local courts in developing specialized programs uniquely tailored to helping specific populations within the court system. Today, there are nearly 150 specialized dockets operating in Ohio including drug courts, mental health courts, re-entry courts, OVI courts, veterans courts, sex offender courts, felony non-support courts and domestic violence courts. The 12 standards included in the newly adopted Rule 36.02 of the Rules of Superintendence for the Courts of Ohio are intended to create a minimum level of uniform practices while still allowing courts to tailor operations to meet their local needs. The standards spell out the procedure for certification. They require courts to engage in a planning process for their specialized docket programs, use a non-adversarial approach, hold regular treatment team meetings, and conduct regular status review hearings for individuals placed in the programs. The standards specifically exempt commercial dockets, housing dockets and environmental dockets from the requirements of the rule. View the complete language of the rule.

JUDGE TRIES NEW OVI APPROACH

Sandusky County Court Judge John Kolesar wore the traditional judge's robe and sat behind an elevated bench Thursday during the Clyde court's weekly OVI court hearing. Though the proceedings met every appearance of a traditional court hearing, the judge's conversations with admitted drunken drivers sounded closer to what one might expect to hear in a substance abuse counseling session or Alcoholics Anonymous meeting. RETOOLING PUNISHMENTS TO REROUTE EX-FELONS' LIVES: EDITORIAL

They are known as collateral sanctions: hundreds of tough-on-crime penalties that can pander more to political expediency than pragmatism and make a mockery of a justice system that is supposed to prize rehabilitation and limit recidivism. More...

HAMILTON COUNTY VETERANS TREATMENT COURT FEATURED ON CHANNEL 12 NEWSMAKERS

Since 2008, special veterans courts have been established in nearly 40 jurisdictions around the country. Though they vary in specific design, they all coordinate services with the goal of successfully transitioning the veteran back into society. Local 12 Reporter Angenette Levy recently prepared a report on the Hamilton County Veterans Court that started earlier this year. More...

BUFFALO VETERANS TREATMENT COURT FEATURED ON CNN

On December 18, the last U.S. convoy of troops exited Iraq, marking an end to Operation Iraqi Freedom. For the brave men and women of our Armed Forces who have sacrificed so much over the past eight years, the battle to reintegrate is underway. As tens of thousands of troops surge home, our attention is now focused on ensuring every veteran receives the treatment, services and benefits they have earned. Over the last two weeks, CNN has run a series of important reports on the serious issues facing some veterans upon their return, including homelessness, suicide, substance abuse and mental health disorders. One outstanding story hails Veterans Treatment Courts as a solution, and takes viewers inside the Buffalo Veterans Treatment Court to see how Judge Robert Russell and his team assist veterans who struggle following service to their country. NADCP and Justice For Vets commend Judge Russell, his team, and all Veterans Treatment Court personnel throughout the nation, for their commitment to leaving no veteran behind. Watch the story here and visit www.JusticeForVets.org to learn more about these innovative and life-saving courts for veterans.

LAUREN BROOKS, CAROLINE PALLOTTA CAMPAIGN AGAINST SEXUAL ASSAULT: COMMUNITY HEROES 2011

Displaying maturity beyond their teen years, Lauren Brooks and Caroline Pallotta have taken on a social issue that even many adults are uncomfortable discussing: Rape. "I always wanted to help people," said Lauren, 17, of Cleveland. "My sister and I want to start a nonprofit that will help women and children." More...

U.S. INCARCERATION FALLS FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 1972

For the first time since 1972, the prison population in the United States declined in 2010. This decline in the total prison populations occurred while all categories of violent and property crime decreased in every region of the country. According to Prisoners in 2010, a report issued today by the Bureau of Justice Statistics, the number of people held in state and federal facilities decreased by 0.6 percent. This report also noted that "prison releases (708,677) exceeded prison admissions (703,798) for the first time since BJS began collecting jurisdictional data in 1977."

NATIONAL BULLYING PROGRAM AWARDS

Apply Now to Have Your Program Nationally Recognized

Deadline: Nominations due by January 10, 2012

Each day an estimated 160,000 students in the United States refuse to go to school because they fear physical and verbal aggression of their peers, and the isolation that comes from being the target of rumors and cyber-bullying. Many more attend school in a state of anxiety and depression. Do you know a community, school, or private anti bullying program or initiative doing extraordinary work to prevent bullying? Are you involved in or know of an anti bullying effort that deserves national recognition? If you answer yes to either of these questions nominate them for the National Anti-Bullying Awards sponsored by the School Safety Advocacy Council and presented at the 2012 National Conference on Bullying, February 15-17, 2012 at the DoubleTree Sea World Resort Orlando in Orlando, Florida. Nominations due by January 10, 2012. For questions regarding awards please email us at resourcer@aol.com or www.schoolsafety911.org

2012 JMATE Memorial Tributes

During the awards presentation, 2012 JMATE will make a special tribute to the fallen heroes and “she-roes” that the behavioral health field has lost this year. If you would like to recognize someone that made a contribution and that passed away this year please complete the following:

- (1) Name of the Individual
- (2) Name, e-mail and phone number of primary contact person for this submission
- (3) A Short (250 word) narrative describing the individual and his/her contribution
- (4) Please send a photo in electronic format (e.g., jpeg)
- (5) Will his/her family be in attendance for the award session?

Please submit the information via email to jmate-info@jbsinternational.com by February 15, 2012. Thank you for taking time to recognize our field's great contributors!

CALL FOR FILMS NOW OPEN!

The 2012 JMATE Cinema Films about Youth Substance Use, Treatment, and Recovery is now open for submission. NAADAC, The Association for Addiction Professionals is sponsoring the 2012 JMATE Cinema (www.naadac.org/). The purpose of JMATE Cinema is to show films that highlight solutions and hope for successful treatment and sustained recovery for youth and families. We welcome submissions of films to be screened at JMATE that are either:

- (1) Films produced by youth/family members or people interested in advocating for youth with substance use disorder, or
- (2) Films that have been found helpful by practitioners, for use in recovery sessions, but may not have been produced by the practitioners.

Review Process

Film submissions will be accepted from December 1, 2011 – January 15, 2012 with acceptance/rejection notifications occurring before March 2012.

Submission Details

To complete your film submission, please visit the homepage of the JMATE Website at www.jmate.org. Entries should be submitted via regular mail to the address indicated on the film submission form (page 3).

If you have any questions or additional information needs, please contact us at JMATE-info@jbsinternational.com.

$1 BILLION TO BE AWARDED FOR HEALTH CARE IMPLEMENTATION

The Department of Health and Human Services announced today that up to $1 billion dollars will be awarded to innovative projects across the country that test creative ways to deliver high quality medical care and save money. The Health Care Innovation Challenge will also give preference to projects that rapidly hire, train and deploy health care workers. Funded by the Affordable Care Act, the Health Care Innovation Challenge will award grants in March to applicants who will implement the most compelling new ideas to deliver better health, improved care and lower costs to people enrolled in Medicare, Medicaid and the Children's Health Insurance Program, particularly those with the highest health care needs. Proposals are encouraged to focus on high cost/high-risk groups including those populations with multiple chronic diseases and/or mental health or substance abuse issues, poor health status due to socio-economic and environmental factors, multiple medical conditions, high cost individuals, or the elderly.

Important deadlines:

Letter of Intent: December 19, 2011

Application Due Date: January 27, 2012

Anticipated Award Date: March 30, 2012

For more information, including a fact sheet and the Funding Opportunity Announcement, please see the Health Care Innovation Challenge initiative web site at: www.innovation.cms.gov.

SUPPORTING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE VICTIMS

The National Network to End Domestic Violence Fund (NNEDVF) teams up with the Allstate Foundation to support NNEDVF grants to aid domestic violence survivors. The program supports 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations whose core mission is to serve or represent victims of domestic violence and their children. The effort also provides small grants to survivors of domestic violence (women and their families) to help them achieve their educational and job related goals. Any survivor of domestic violence is eligible to apply; however, the application must be completed by a local domestic violence program or coalition to be accepted. Applications will be assessed based on the need. There are a variety of grants available such as one that works through state coalitions to train advocates and encourage economic independence from abusers. Information: <http://www.allstate.com/foundation/domestic-violence-grants.aspx> or 202/543-5566.

EDUCATION, COMMUNITY NEEDS AND DIVERSITY/FAIRNESS FOCUS

Deadline: Ongoing

The Darden Restaurant Foundation (DRF), affiliated with the company that owns Olive Garden and Red Lobster restaurants, offers an array of community-based grants for the improvement of K-12 education. Darden makes grants in communities where it has facilities. Because they have operations across the country, chances are good there will be a facility in your back yard. Projects should meet community needs as well as emphasize diversity and fairness. Be aware that foundation board meetings are held quarterly in August, November, February and May. If you have a time sensitive project, it's best to check with DRF to see how much lead time they need for a grant application.

GENERAL YOUTH FUNDING

Deadline: Rolling

Summary: Most of the work the Annie E. Casey Foundation supports takes the form of multi-year, multi-site, foundation-based projects. However, the foundation, which focuses on helping vulnerable and at-risk children, youth and their families, does not discourage interested organizations from submitting letter of inquiry when looking for grants. Founded in 1948, the primary mission of the Foundation is to foster public policies, human-service reforms, and community supports that more effectively meet the needs of vulnerable children and families. It is the 15th largest private foundation in the United States, with assets of more than $3 billion, and ranks 20th in the nation for charitable giving.

The Chicago-based John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation's Program on Human and Community Development will focus its grant-making strategies on community change and juvenile justice. The Juvenile Justice effort maintains a national scope and promotes an effective juvenile justice system that is linked to relevant agencies, is acknowledged to play a critical role in the community and is held accountable for public safety as well as the rehabilitation of young offenders. Grant award funding levels vary. Eligible applicants for the Juvenile Justice program include a variety of organizations in the United States.

PUBLIC WELFARE FOUNDATION GRANTS

Deadline: Open and rolling

Website: www.publicwelfare.org

The Public Welfare Foundation (PWF) offers $1.5 million in grants for its Criminal Justice Program competition. Funds promote a fair and humane criminal justice system and violence prevention that includes alternatives to incarceration, effective legal representation and the reintegration of offenders as productive citizens. Proposals are welcomed from a wide range of organizations and can include both governmental and independent advocacy groups.

MCCORMICK TRIBUNE FOUNDATION COMMUNITIES PROGRAM GRANTS

Deadline: Ongoing
