NEWS

OUTSIDE BOX, FEDERAL JUDGES OFFER ADDICTS A FREE PATH

Federal judges around the country are teaming up with prosecutors to create special treatment programs for drug-addicted defendants who would otherwise face significant prison time, an effort intended to sidestep drug laws widely seen as inflexible and overly punitive. More...

COURT INTERVENTION ALLIANCE GRADUATES FIRST CLASS

One regained custody of a child. One is considering going to college. One earned a graduation equivalency degree. One would still be in prison. On Monday, all four were celebrated as the first class of graduates from the Licking County Court Intervention Alliance program, Licking County's felony drug court. Licking County Common Pleas Court Judge David Branstool officiated the graduation at the Look Up Center, recognizing the hard work and dedication of Wendell Arthur, Melissa Newton, Ti Warner and Shawn Nelson. THE OFFICE OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE SERVICES SURVEY

The Office of Criminal Justice Services (OCJS) at the Ohio Department of Public Safety administers the Services, Training, Officers, and Prosecutors (STOP) Violence Against Women formula grant program that encourages the development and improvement of effective law enforcement, prosecution, courts, advocacy and services in cases involving violent crimes against women. As part of its strategic implement plan, OCJS has developed a statewide needs assessment survey, http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/OCJS_STOPVAWAsurvey, to identify priorities as they work to increase the safety of domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking victims. This survey will take approximately 10-15 minutes to complete and will be available until March 15, 2013.

WEBINARS

The National Drug Court Resource Center's (NDCRC) Tune in on Tuesday webinar series is proud to announce two outstanding new presentations have been scheduled. Don't miss this opportunity to learn from renowned Drug Court educator Steve Hanson as he walks you through Psychopharmacology and Evidence Based Practices.

Information on each webinar is below. Check them out, register, and tune in! Visit the NDCRC to view past webinars.

PSYCHOPHARMACOLOGY

Presented by Steve Hanson

March 12, 2013 at 2pm EST

Psychopharmacology is the study of the effects of drugs on behavior. Understanding these effects play a pivotal role in treatment implications amongst participants of Drug Court programs. This webinar will discuss the potential short and long term effects of alcohol and other drug use on brain physiology and behavior. Viewers of this session will be able to differentiate between substance abuse and dependence and understand the widespread physiological and psychological changes caused by alcohol and other drug use. The knowledge gained through this webinar will allow Drug Court practitioners to begin to develop appropriate and attainable expectations for participants of their programs.

EVIDENCE BASED PRACTICES

Presented by Steve Hanson

March 26, 2013 at 2pm EST

Understanding the importance of being able to demonstrate the use of services validated by documented research is a necessity amongst Drug Court practitioners. This webinar is geared towards teaching viewers about evidence-based practices and where to locate information on proven services and methods. In addition, practitioners will learn how to determine which evidence-based practices are most appropriate for participants of their Drug Court programs.

KNOWLEDGE SHARING COMMUNITY: RESPONDING TO DOMESTIC VIOLENCE IN FDCS

Join us for our next FDC Learning Academy Webinar on

March 13th - 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM PDT

Reserve your Webinar seat now at:

<https://www1.gotomeeting.com/register/256991088>

Although Family Drug Courts (FDCs) oversee cases of child abuse and neglect involving primarily parental substance abuse, participant families with domestic violence (DV) or interpersonal violence present particular challenges to the FDC. These challenges range from screening protocols, need for coordinated legal and treatment response, and service array to meet the complex needs of family members, including survivors and perpetrators. Additionally, FDC professionals, may lack the background, experience and/or confidence in screening for DV victimization and perpetration. This webinar will briefly review current understanding of interpersonal violence as well as DV perpetrators and their victims. Special attention will focus on screening methods, brief intervention strategies and referrals to services that are most applicable to FDC. The sharing of knowledge during this presentation will hopefully pave the way for a more coordinated system of care for families who suffer from these complex, intertwined problems.

NATIONAL TA CENTER WEBINAR SERIES

The National Technical Assistance Center for Children's Mental Health conducts monthly webinars through our National TA Webinar Series. These webinars generally occur on the third Thursday of each month from 1:00 - 2:30 PM E.T.

Participation in the webinar series requires that you register using the online registration form below. There are no registration fees to listen to or participate in these webinars.

Call for Proposals

OHIO ALLIANCE TO END SEXUAL VIOLENCE

Every year the Ohio Alliance to End Sexual Violence hosts a statewide conference for prevention specialists, victim service advocates, and allied professionals. This year we request your knowledge of best practice, current trends, and innovative topics. Please consider presenting at the 2013 OAESV Annual Conference!

CONFERENCE THEME & GOALS:

The theme of this year's conference is Turning Up The Volume on ending sexual and intimate partner violence. This request seeks workshop proposals that increase our efforts, build further capacity, shine a spotlight on our work, reenergize our commitments, or address innovative practices in prevention or intervention. In addition, we seek workshop proposals that focus on social media and social change. Applicants are encouraged to submit proposals for workshops that include engaging activities that offer the opportunity for hands-on learning. The OAESV statewide conference is a place to share, discuss, and explore the connections and creative solutions essential to our efforts to end violence.

If you are interested in submitting a proposal, follow this link:

<http://www.oaesv.org/2013-oaesv-annual-statewide-conference/> then complete and submit the proposal form by the April 15, 2013 deadline.

SAMHSA DRUG COURT GRANTS NOW AVAILABLE

Deadline: April 19, 2013

The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), Center for Substance Abuse Treatment (CSAT) is accepting applications for fiscal year (FY) 2013 Grants to Expand Substance Abuse Treatment in Adult, Juvenile, and Family Drug Courts. Historically, turnout for this solicitation has been low. Don't miss this outstanding opportunity to fund your program.

Eligible models: Adult Drug Courts, Co-Occurring Drug and Mental Health Courts, DWI Courts, Family Drug Courts, Juvenile Drug Courts, Tribal Healing to Wellness Courts, and Veterans Treatment Courts.

Purpose: This program exists to expand and/or enhance substance abuse treatment services to addicted offenders. We encourage you to review the solicitation carefully as these grants can fund several different initiatives. In addition, consider that NADCP and its professional services branches offer a suite of services that can be funded through this grant, and it can also be used to fund your team's attendance at the NADCP Annual Training Conference and Vet Court Con.

AT RISK YOUTH GRANTS

Deadline: April 1/July 1, 2013

The Carlson Family Foundation focuses on supporting youth mentoring programs that exhibit characteristics of high quality and excellence; fostering innovation and creativity within the field of youth mentoring and supporting efforts to increase the number of adult mentors to serve youth. The foundation awards most of its funds in the state of Minnesota, but has awarded grants in other states. The trustees meet three times each year and the deadlines above correspond to the deadlines prior to each respective grant funding round. The foundation made about $700,000 in grants last year. Eligibility is limited to non-profits and faith-based groups.

Information: www.clcfamilyfoundation.com/apply.asp Mary Owen, director, 550 Tonkawa Rd., Long Lake, MN 55356-9724, 919/604-0842.

THE OFFICE ON VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

The Office on Violence Against Women recently released the Fiscal Year 2013 solicitation for its Court Training and Improvements Program. The solicitation offers two types of funding: (1) a 36-month development grant, to develop a specialized domestic violence/sexual assault docket or to enhance an existing docket/project; and (2) a 24-month supplemental training grant for judicial and/or staff education. Every grantee is required to seek technical assistance from one of the OVW-Designated Judicial Technical Assistance Providers for the Courts Program. They are listed in Appendix B, beginning on page 43 of the solicitation. The National Center for State Courts is one of them. The application packet is available at: <http://www.ovw.usdoj.gov/docs/courts-program-solicitaion-final-for-release.pdf>

EDUCATION, COMMUNITY NEEDS AND DIVERSITY/FAIRNESS FOCUS

Deadline: Ongoing

The Darden Restaurant Foundation (DRF), affiliated with the company that owns Olive Garden and Red Lobster restaurants, offers an array of community-based grants for the improvement of K-12 education. Darden makes grants in communities where it has facilities. Because they have operations across the country, chances are good there will be a facility in your back yard. Projects should meet community needs as well as emphasize diversity and fairness. Be aware that foundation board meetings are held quarterly in August, November, February and May. If you have a time sensitive project, it's best to check with DRF to see how much lead time they need for a grant application.

Information: Bob McAdam, Senior Vice President, Community Affairs, 407/245-5366;

GENERAL YOUTH FUNDING

Deadline: Rolling

Summary: Most of the work the Annie E. Casey Foundation supports takes the form of multi-year, multi-site, foundation-based projects. However, the foundation, which focuses on helping vulnerable and at-risk children, youth and their families, does not discourage interested organizations from submitting letter of inquiry when looking for grants. Founded in 1948, the primary mission of the Foundation is to foster public policies, human-service reforms, and community supports that more effectively meet the needs of vulnerable children and families. It is the 15th largest private foundation in the United States, with assets of more than $3 billion, and ranks 20th in the nation for charitable giving.

HUMAN AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Deadline: Ongoing

Website:

www.macfound.org/site/c.lkLXJ8MQKrH/b.938141/k.FEFC/Domestic_Grantmaking

The Chicago-based John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation's Program on Human and Community Development will focus its grant-making strategies on community change and juvenile justice. The Juvenile Justice effort maintains a national scope and promotes an effective juvenile justice system that is linked to relevant agencies, is acknowledged to play a critical role in the community and is held accountable for public safety as well as the rehabilitation of young offenders. Grant award funding levels vary. Eligible applicants for the Juvenile Justice program include a variety of organizations in the United States.

PUBLIC WELFARE FOUNDATION GRANTS

Deadline: Open and rolling

Website: www.publicwelfare.org

The Public Welfare Foundation (PWF) offers $1.5 million in grants for its Criminal Justice Program competition. Funds promote a fair and humane criminal justice system and violence prevention that includes alternatives to incarceration, effective legal representation and the reintegration of offenders as productive citizens. Proposals are welcomed from a wide range of organizations and can include both governmental and independent advocacy groups.

MCCORMICK TRIBUNE FOUNDATION COMMUNITIES PROGRAM GRANTS

Deadline: Ongoing

Website: www.mccormicktribune.org/programs.aspx

The McCormick Tribune Foundation Communities Program supports efforts to stimulate local philanthropy and improve community life through collaborative partnerships in communities nationwide. The foundation helps to support projects that address basic human needs, children and youth at risk, and community strengthening efforts.

Website: <http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/PA-07-091.html>

Description: The National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH), National Institutes of Health (NIH), invites research grant applications on services delivered to children, adolescents, and their families through the Center for Mental Health Services' (CMHS) Comprehensive Community Mental Health Services for Children and Their Families Program initiative (hereafter referred to as the "Children's Services Program").

SUPPORTING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE VICTIMS

Deadline: Varies by Program

The National Network to End Domestic Violence Fund (NNEDVF) teams up with the Allstate Foundation to support NNEDVF grants to aid domestic violence survivors. The program supports 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations whose core mission is to serve or represent victims of domestic violence and their children. The effort also provides small grants to survivors of domestic violence (women and their families) to help them achieve their educational and job related goals. Any survivor of domestic violence is eligible to apply; however, the application must be completed by a local domestic violence program or coalition to be accepted. Applications will be assessed based on the need. There are a variety of grants available such as one that works through state coalitions to train advocates and encourage economic independence from abusers. Information:
