NEWS

QUICK TAKE OHIO: SPECIALIZED DOCKETS

Ohio has been recognized as a national leader in the implementation of specialized dockets. Melissa Knopp, Manager of the Specialized Dockets Section for the Supreme Court of Ohio, joins this episode of Quick Take Ohio. She will discuss the new rule recently adopted by the Ohio Supreme Court to help standardize the operation of these dockets and allows local courts to receive Supreme Court certification.

To listen to this podcast, click here.

COMMISSION ON SPECIALIZED DOCKETS MEETS FOR FIRST TIME TODAY

The entity responsible for certifying all Ohio courts' specialized dockets met for the first time today. Less than a year from now, Ohio courts that operate specialized docket programs will be required to be initially certified by the Supreme Court. The certification requirement will be effective January 1, 2014. In November, the Ohio Supreme Court adopted rule amendments that created a new Commission on Specialized Dockets and outlined the specialized docket certification procedures. Previously, the work of the Supreme Court's Specialized Dockets Section had been guided by an advisory committee.

FUNDING

DRUG-FREE COMMUNITIES MENTORING PROGRAM

Deadline: April 23rd, 2013

The primary goal of the Mentoring grant is to assist newly forming coalitions in becoming eligible to apply for DFC funding on their own. It is the intent of the DFC Mentoring Program that, at the end of the Mentoring grant, each Mentee coalition will meet all of the Statutory Eligibility Requirements of the DFC Program and will be fully prepared to compete for the DFC grant on their own. Grantees will be expected to achieve this goal by implementing the following objectives: 1. Strengthen Mentee coalition's organizational structure 2. Increase Mentee coalition's leadership and community readiness to address youth substance use problems in the Mentee community 3. Assist the Mentee coalition in working through a strategic planning process that will result in a comprehensive Action Plan.

Funder: Substance Abuse & Mental Health Services Administration

Eligibility: Only currently funded DFC grantees are eligible to apply. See link for complete eligibility information.

Amount: up to $75,000

THE HEALTHPATH FOUNDATION OF OHIO'S COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS GRANT PROGRAM

The HealthPath Foundation of Ohio's Community Connections Grant Program focuses on bringing evidence-based and promising practices to the Foundation's 36-county service area. In 2013, our Community Connections initiative will focus on increasing access to healthcare, including primary, oral, specialty, and behavioral health care. Specifically, we will invest in projects that address barriers to healthcare, such as lack of insurance or providers, language and cultural issues, transportation, and other barriers. We are sponsoring a full-day Community Connections Pre-Application Workshop for 2013 grants in Gahanna, Ohio (near Columbus), on Friday, April 26. We also are sponsoring half-day workshops in Portsmouth, Ohio (Monday, April 29) and St. Clairsville, Ohio (Tuesday, April 30). You need only attend one workshop. We are inviting safety net healthcare and social service organizations interested in submitting a letter of intent to attend. Only those organizations serving residents of one or more counties in the Foundation's service area will be eligible to apply for a Community Connections grant.

OJJDP ANNOUNCES MENTORING FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

The Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) has announced the following fiscal year 2013 funding opportunities:

National Mentoring Programs. This program supports the implementation, delivery, and enhancement of mentoring services to improve outcomes for at-risk, high-risk, or underserved youth. Applications are due by 11:59 p.m. ET on April 29, 2013.

Multi-State Mentoring Initiative. This solicitation will support qualified, established mentoring programs as they expand services for underserved at-risk and high-risk youth and enhance services to implement additional research- and evidence-based mentoring practices. Applications are due by April 30, 2013.

SECOND CHANCE ACT REENTRY PROGRAM FOR ADULT OFFENDERS WITH CO-OCCURRING SUBSTANCE ABUSE AND MENTAL HEALTH DISORDERS

The U.S. Department of Justice \(DOJ\), Office of Justice Programs \(OJP\), Bureau of Justice Assistance \(BJA\) is seeking applications for Second Chance Act Reentry Program for Adult Offenders with Co-Occurring Substance Abuse and Mental Health Disorders.

This program furthers the Department's mission by providing resources to state, local, and tribal governments to establish or enhance the provision of treatment to adult offenders reentering the community. The Second Chance Act Reentry Program for Adult Offenders with Co-Occurring Substance Abuse and Mental Health Disorders grant awards funds to treat co-occurring substance abuse and mental health disorders in prisons and jails and to provide recovery support services, reentry planning and programming, and post-release treatment and aftercare programming in the community through the completion of parole or court supervision. The deadline to apply for this opportunity is May 16, 2013. Applicants must register with Grants.gov in order to submit an application.

AT RISK YOUTH GRANTS

Deadline: July 1, 2013

The Carlson Family Foundation focuses on supporting youth mentoring programs that exhibit characteristics of high quality and excellence; fostering innovation and creativity within the field of youth mentoring and supporting efforts to increase the number of adult mentors to serve youth. The foundation awards most of its funds in the state of Minnesota, but has awarded grants in other states. The trustees meet three times each year and the deadlines above correspond to the deadlines prior to each respective grant funding round. The foundation made about $700,000 in grants last year. Eligibility is limited to non-profits and faith-based groups.

Information: www.clcfamilyfoundation.com/apply.asp Mary Owen, director, 550 Tonkawa Rd., Long Lake, MN 55356-9724, 919/604-0842.

THE OFFICE ON VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

The Office on Violence Against Women recently released the Fiscal Year 2013 solicitation for its Court Training and Improvements Program. The solicitation offers two types of funding: (1) a 36-month development grant, to develop a specialized domestic violence/sexual assault docket or to enhance an existing docket/project; and (2) a 24-month supplemental training grant for judicial and/or staff education. Every grantee is required to seek technical assistance from one of the OVW-Designated Judicial Technical Assistance Providers for the Courts Program. They are listed in Appendix B, beginning on page 43 of the solicitation. The National Center for State Courts is one of them. The application packet is available at: <http://www.ovw.usdoj.gov/docs/courts-program-solicitaion-final-for-release.pdf>

EDUCATION, COMMUNITY NEEDS AND DIVERSITY/FAIRNESS FOCUS

Deadline: Ongoing

The Darden Restaurant Foundation (DRF), affiliated with the company that owns Olive Garden and Red Lobster restaurants, offers an array of community-based grants for the improvement of K-12 education. Darden makes grants in communities where it has facilities. Because they have operations across the country, chances are good there will be a facility in your back yard. Projects should meet community needs as well as emphasize diversity and fairness. Be aware that foundation board meetings are held quarterly in August, November, February and May. If you have a time sensitive project, it's best to check with DRF to see how much lead time they need for a grant application.

Information: Bob McAdam, Senior Vice President, Community Affairs, 407/245-5366;

GENERAL YOUTH FUNDING

Deadline: Rolling

Summary: Most of the work the Annie E. Casey Foundation supports takes the form of multi-year, multi-site, foundation-based projects. However, the foundation, which focuses on helping vulnerable and at-risk children, youth and their families, does not discourage interested organizations from submitting letter of inquiry when looking for grants. Founded in 1948, the primary mission of the Foundation is to foster public policies, human-service reforms, and community supports that more effectively meet the needs of vulnerable children and families. It is the 15th largest private foundation in the United States, with assets of more than $3 billion, and ranks 20th in the nation for charitable giving.

Website: <http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/PA-07-091.html>

Description: The National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH), National Institutes of Health (NIH), invites research grant applications on services delivered to children, adolescents, and their families through the Center for Mental Health Services' (CMHS) Comprehensive Community Mental Health Services for Children and Their Families Program initiative (hereafter referred to as the "Children's Services Program").

SUPPORTING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE VICTIMS

Deadline: Varies by Program

The National Network to End Domestic Violence Fund (NNEDVF) teams up with the Allstate Foundation to support NNEDVF grants to aid domestic violence survivors. The program supports 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations whose core mission is to serve or represent victims of domestic violence and their children. The effort also provides small grants to survivors of domestic violence (women and their families) to help them achieve their educational and job related goals. Any survivor of domestic violence is eligible to apply; however, the application must be completed by a local domestic violence program or coalition to be accepted. Applications will be assessed based on the need. There are a variety of grants available such as one that works through state coalitions to train advocates and encourage economic independence from abusers. Information:

ADOLESCENT-BASED TREATMENT DATABASE

The NCJFCJ has compiled information on validated treatment interventions and screening tools in the Adolescent-Based Treatment Database and is extremely excited to roll this product out to the juvenile justice field! The database will serve as a valuable tool for juvenile drug courts (JDCs) by detailing intervention basics, special considerations for JDCs, and engagement strategies. The Adolescent-Based Treatment Database will serve as a “one-stop-shop” for JDCs researching adolescent-focused treatment and screening tools. There are several ways to use the Database which are detailed in the Treatment Database Usage TIPS: Visitors can download or view the Adolescent-Based Treatment Interventions Comparison Matrix. The Comparison Matrix will help readers quickly identify brief, individual, group, and family interventions that may work in their jurisdiction, Visitors can download a complete copy of the Adolescent-Based Treatment Database and share the 33 page document with additional JDC team members, stakeholders, or partners, Visitors can click on any of the individual interventions to research the best fit for your jurisdiction. Visitors to the Database should take the opportunity to visit the NCJFCJ’s Juvenile Drug Court Information Center, as well. The Center has a wealth of JDC-related articles, resource tools, and information, all centered on the Juvenile Drug Courts: Strategies in Practice. JDC professionals can now visit one source to research information on the juvenile drug court preferred model and suggested adolescent-based treatments and screening instruments for their programs.
