NEWS

VETERANS TREATMENT COURT HOLDS GRADUATION TODAY

Six U.S. military veterans graduate from Hamilton County Municipal Court Veterans Treatment Program today.

Judge Melissa Powers created the program in 2010 to help veterans who are criminal defendants cope with trauma resulting from warfare. The goal is to provide them with services and support to help them heal and get a second chance. “The outpouring of support from the community to recognize those that served our country inspires our local veterans to overcome the silent wounds of war,” the judge said. “We cannot forget their service to our country and we must provide the means to heal.” More...

ILLICIT DRUGS AND MENTAL ILLNESS TAKE A HUGE GLOBAL TOLL

Mental disorders and substance abuse are the leading causes of nonfatal illness on the planet, according to an ambitious analysis of data from around the world. A companion report, the first of its kind, documents the global impact of four illicit drugs: heroin and other opiates, amphetamines, cocaine and cannabis. It calls illegal drugs "an important contributor to the global burden of disease." More...

PR. GEORGE’S MENTAL HEALTH COURT AIMS TO TREAT, RATHER THAN JAIL, DEFENDANTS

The charge was stealing a tow truck. The defendant was a baby-faced 27-year-old in shorts and a Chicago Bulls jersey. His hair was slightly matted, wrists cuffed in front, hands clutching a brown paper bag, demeanor slackened by antipsychotic medications. More...

NEW UNIFORM TRAFFICKING LAW FOCUSES ON ASSISTING SURVIVORS IN THEIR PURSUIT OF JUSTICE

The 13th Amendment to the Constitution states that neither slavery nor involuntary servitude shall exist within the United States — yet human trafficking is present in every state, and few laws or systems are in place to stop it. Supreme Court Justice Anthony Kennedy weighed in during a discussion at the American Bar Association Annual Meeting on the potential adoption of the Uniform Act on Prevention of and Remedies for Human Trafficking. NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF DRUG COURT PROFESSIONALS APPLAUDS JUSTICE DEPARTMENT SMART ON CRIME INITIATIVE; CALLS FOR FEDERAL DRUG COURT EXPANSION

Today, Attorney General Eric Holder outlined new Justice Department initiatives aimed at reducing the U.S. Prison population, including easing federal mandatory minimums for some drug offenders. With federal prisons operating at nearly 40 percent above capacity, the Drug Court model offers a proven solution for diverting non-violent, non-drug dealing, and seriously addicted offenders into treatment instead of putting them behind bars. MASSACHUSETTS' SIMPLE SOLUTION FOR PREVENTING DOMESTIC HOMICIDE

In theory, domestic homicide should be easy to prevent, since men who kill their wives or girlfriends (85 percent of victims are female) generally give us lots of warning by beating, stalking, and even raping their victims, usually for years before they finally kill. In reality, it's surprisingly hard to stop someone who really wants to murder you, especially if he has easy access to a gun. Restraining orders don't create a magic force field around the victim. FUNDING

AMERICAN PSYCHOLOGICAL FOUNDATION INVITES CLINICIANS TO APPLY FOR PEARSON EARLY CAREER GRANT

The American Psychological Foundation's Pearson Early Career Grant program is designed to encourage early-career clinicians to work in an area of critical societal need. The program's goals are to support psychology's efforts to improve areas of critical need in society, including but not limited to scientifically based clinical work on serious mental illness, serious emotional disturbance, incarcerated and homeless individuals, children with serious emotional disturbance, and adults with serious mental illness. The aim of the program is to encourage early-career psychologists to devote their careers to underserved populations. Applicants should be psychologists with an Ed.D., Psy.D., or Ph.D. from an accredited university and be no more than seven years postdoctoral.

One grant of $12,000 will be awarded. The recipient may use grant monies for direct administrative costs of his or her proposed project. APF does not allow grant monies to be used for indirect institutional or overhead costs. Complete program guidelines and application procedures are available at the APF Web site. Contact: Link to Complete RFP

THE OFFICE ON VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

The Office on Violence Against Women recently released the Fiscal Year 2013 solicitation for its Court Training and Improvements Program. The solicitation offers two types of funding: (1) a 36-month development grant, to develop a specialized domestic violence/sexual assault docket or to enhance an existing docket/project; and (2) a 24-month supplemental training grant for judicial and/or staff education. Every grantee is required to seek technical assistance from one of the OVW-Designated Judicial Technical Assistance Providers for the Courts Program. They are listed in Appendix B, beginning on page 43 of the solicitation. The National Center for State Courts is one of them. The application packet is available at: <http://www.ovw.usdoj.gov/docs/courts-program-solicitation-final-for-release.pdf>

EDUCATION, COMMUNITY NEEDS AND DIVERSITY/FAIRNESS FOCUS

Deadline: Ongoing

The Darden Restaurant Foundation (DRF), affiliated with the company that owns Olive Garden and Red Lobster restaurants, offers an array of community-based grants for the improvement of K-12 education. Darden makes grants in communities where it has facilities. Because they have operations across the country, chances are good there will be a facility in your back yard. Projects should meet community needs as well as emphasize diversity and fairness. Be aware that foundation board meetings are held quarterly in August, November, February and May. If you have a time sensitive project, it's best to check with DRF to see how much lead time they need for a grant application.

Information: Bob McAdam, Senior Vice President, Community Affairs, 407/245-5366; http://www.darden.com/com_overview_mission.asp

GENERAL YOUTH FUNDING

Deadline: Rolling

Summary: Most of the work the Annie E. Casey Foundation supports takes the form of multi-year, multi-site, foundation-based projects. However, the foundation, which focuses on helping vulnerable and at-risk children, youth and their families, does not discourage interested organizations from submitting letter of inquiry when looking for grants. Founded in 1948, the primary mission of the Foundation is to foster public policies, human-service reforms, and community supports that more effectively meet the needs of vulnerable children and families. It is the 15th largest private foundation in the United States, with assets of more than $3 billion, and ranks 20th in the nation for charitable giving.

HUMAN AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Deadline: Ongoing

Website:

www.macfound.org/site/c.lkLXJ8MQKrH/b.938141/k.FEFC/Domestic_Grantmaking

The Chicago-based John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation's Program on Human and Community Development will focus its grant-making strategies on community change and juvenile justice. The Juvenile Justice effort maintains a national scope and promotes an effective juvenile justice system that is linked to relevant agencies, is acknowledged to play a critical role in the community and is held accountable for public safety as well as the rehabilitation of young offenders. Grant award funding levels vary. Eligible applicants for the Juvenile Justice program include a variety of organizations in the United States.

PUBLIC WELFARE FOUNDATION GRANTS

Deadline: Open and rolling

Website: www.publicwelfare.org

The Public Welfare Foundation (PWF) offers $1.5 million in grants for its Criminal Justice Program competition. Funds promote a fair and humane criminal justice system and violence prevention that includes alternatives to incarceration, effective legal representation and the reintegration of offenders as productive citizens. Proposals are welcomed from a wide range of organizations and can include both governmental and independent advocacy groups.

MCCORMICK TRIBUNE FOUNDATION COMMUNITIES PROGRAM GRANTS

Deadline: Ongoing

Website: www.mccormicktribune.org/programs.aspx

The McCormick Tribune Foundation Communities Program supports efforts to stimulate local philanthropy and improve community life through collaborative partnerships in communities nationwide. The foundation helps to support projects that address basic human needs, children and youth at risk, and community strengthening efforts.

Website: <http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/PA-07-091.html>

Description: The National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH), National Institutes of Health (NIH), invites research grant applications on services delivered to children, adolescents, and their families through the Center for Mental Health Services' (CMHS) Comprehensive Community Mental Health Services for Children and Their Families Program initiative (hereafter referred to as the "Children's Services Program").

SUPPORTING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE VICTIMS

Deadline: Varies by Program

The National Network to End Domestic Violence Fund (NNEDVF) teams up with the Allstate Foundation to support NNEDVF grants to aid domestic violence survivors. The program supports 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations whose core mission is to serve or represent victims of domestic violence and their children. The effort also provides small grants to survivors of domestic violence (women and their families) to help them achieve their educational and job related goals. Any survivor of domestic violence is eligible to apply; however, the application must be completed by a local domestic violence program or coalition to be accepted. Applications will be assessed based on the need. There are a variety of grants available such as one that works through state coalitions to train advocates and encourage economic independence from abusers. Information:

CANS ASSESSMENT TOOL TRAINING

Date: December 11 & 12, 2013 - Columbus, OH

Location: Quest Conference Center, 8405 Pulsar Place, Columbus, OH 43240

Trainer: Dr. John Lyons, Ph. D., founder of the CANS

OACCA, in partnership with Dr. John Lyons, will present a two-day training to further the implementation of The Child and Adolescent Needs and Strengths \(CANS\) evidence-based functional assessment tool across Ohio. The purpose of this training event is to increase the availability of certified CANS trainers in public and private child welfare, mental health, and juvenile justice agencies in Ohio. The training will explore how the CANS provides direction for service planning related to needs and strengths and for levels of care placement decisions and mental health screening. Attendees can expect an overview of outcomes management, an explanation of the communication model, a detailed review of the manual with case examples, a practice vignette, and individual scoring of a vignette to attain certification in the use of the tool.

There will be two parts to the training.

Day 1: attendees can become familiar with the CANS and its uses and obtain training necessary to become certified users.

Day 2: attendees can work to become certified trainers so that they can provide training to others in their agencies.

STUDY REVIEWS NEW YORK'S ADULT DRUG COURTS

"A Statewide Evaluation of New York's Adult Drug Courts: Identifying Which Policies Work Best" (NCJ 243269, 118 pp.) describes a study that evaluated 86 adult drug courts in New York, the most sites ever included in a single drug court evaluation. The goal of the study was to determine why some drug courts are more successful than others. (BJA)

HIGHFIELD V HIGHFIELD, 2013-OHIO-3466 (6th Dist.) decided on 8/9/13., <http://www.supremecourtofohio.gov/rod/docs/pdf/6/2013/2013-ohio-3466.pdf>. The Court of Appeals denied the respondent's motion to terminate a domestic violence CPO because of petitioner's continuing fear of the respondent and her refusal to consent to the termination. This case is significant because both the trial court and the Court of Appeals gave special weight to those two statutory factors (and did not even discuss the other statutory modification/termination factors in R. C. 3113.31.) The petitioner's pet's fear and lack of consent to a modification or termination, if not determinative, seem to be "super-factors" in the eyes of the Sixth District Court of Appeals. If other appellate courts adopt this approach, then it will be difficult for respondents to modify or terminate protection orders without the petitioner's consent.

DRC WILL COMPLETE THE ORAS ASSESSMENT FOR “OUT-OF-COUNTY” JUDICIAL RELEASE CANDIDATES:

It has come to the attention of the ORAS Steering Committee that there are instances where a judge requests an ORAS assessment prior to a judicial release hearing but due to the location of the offender (incarcerated in a prison outside of that county) an assessment is being completed via phone interview or mail in process. The ORAS assessment necessitates a face to face interview. Phone interviews are discouraged and the process of mailing the interview guide or ORAS tool directly to the offender is not permitted.

DRC will complete the ORAS assessment for “out-of-county” Judicial Release candidates:

In order to provide this requested and beneficial information to judges prior to the judicial release hearing without creating an undue burden to probation departments , DRC has put a process in place to assist with ensuring an appropriate ORAS interview is completed and valid assessment made available.

If a Judge has requested an ORAS assessment prior to a judicial release hearing and the offender is incarcerated in a prison out of that county, the Court/Probation Department may request assistance from DRC to complete the ORAS assessment.

Please send an email to Stephanie Starr (stephanie.starr@odrc.state.oh.us) and Dionne Addison (Dionne.addison@odrc.state.oh.us) indicating the required information below. The request should;

1. Come at least two weeks prior to the hearing
2. Be a result of a judicial request specifically for the Judicial Release hearing.

The Court employee making the request will receive an email once the ORAS assessment is complete and available in the ORAS system. The following information is required in the email request:

1. Offender Name
2. Offender Identifier (DRC number, DOB, SSN)
3. Institution
4. Date inmate is scheduled to be transported from Institution to the local jail
5. Date of hearing
6. Person requesting/contact information (name, email and phone)
