RULE I. Professional Responsibility and Judicial Ethics.

Section 1. Applicability.

The Ohio Rules of Professional Conduct, effective February 1, 2007, as amended, shall be binding upon all persons admitted to practice law in Ohio. The willful breach of the Rules by a Justice, judge, or candidate for judicial office shall be punished by reprimand, suspension, disbarment, or probation as provided in Gov. Jud. R. II and Gov. Bar R. V. The Ohio Code of Judicial Conduct, effective March 1, 2009, as amended, shall be binding upon all judicial officers of this state and candidates for judicial office. The willful breach of the Code shall be punished by reprimand, suspension, disbarment, or probation as provided in Gov. Jud. R. II and Gov. Bar R. V, or by retirement, removal, or suspension from office, as provided in Gov. Jud. R. III.

Section 2. Duty of Lawyers.

It is the duty of the lawyer to maintain towards the courts a respectful attitude, not for the sake of the temporary incumbent of the judicial office, but for the maintenance of its supreme importance. Justices and judges, not being wholly free to defend themselves, are peculiarly entitled to receive the support of lawyers against unjust criticism and clamor. Whenever there is proper ground for serious complaint of a judicial officer, it is the right and duty of the lawyer to submit a grievance to the proper authorities. These charges should be encouraged and the person making them should be protected.

[Effective: July 1, 1983; amended effective October 1, 1986; January 1, 1988; January 1, 1993, February 1, 2007; May 2, 2017.]

RULE II. Disciplinary Procedure.

Section 1. Board of Professional Conduct of the Supreme Court.

There is created under Rule V of the Supreme Court Rules for the Government of the Bar of Ohio a Board of Professional Conduct of the Supreme Court. The Board shall receive evidence, preserve the record, make findings, and submit recommendations to the Supreme Court as follows:

(A) Concerning complaints of misconduct that are alleged to have been committed by a justice, judge, or candidate for judicial office;

(B) Concerning allegations that a justice or judge is unable to discharge the duties of judicial office by virtue of a mental or physical disability;

(C) Upon reference by the Supreme Court of conduct by a justice, judge, or candidate for judicial office affecting any proceeding under these rules or the Supreme Court Rules for the Government of the Bar of Ohio, where the acts allegedly constitute a contempt of the Supreme Court or a breach of these rules but did not take place in the presence of the Supreme Court or a member of the Supreme Court, whether by willful disobedience of any order or judgment of the Supreme Court or an order or subpoena issued by the Board of Professional Conduct, by interference with any officer of the Supreme Court in the prosecution of any duty, or otherwise. Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting or affecting the plenary power of the Supreme Court to impose punishment with reference either to contempts or breaches of these rules committed in its presence or the plenary power of any other court with reference to contempts committed in its presence.

Section 2. Authority and Duty of Disciplinary Counsel and Certified Grievance Committees.

(A) Except as provided in Gov. Bar R. V and Section 5 of this rule, a grievance alleging misconduct of a judge or candidate for judicial office, or alleging that a judge is unable to discharge the duties of judicial office by virtue of a mental or physical disability, shall be filed with the Office of Disciplinary Counsel or with a grievance committee certified pursuant to Gov. Bar R. V. The Office of Disciplinary Counsel and certified grievance committees shall have authority to investigate grievances, file formal complaints with the Board, and prosecute formal complaints filed with the Board.

(B) Except as provided in Section 5 and 6 of this rule, a grievance alleging misconduct of the Chief Justice or a justice of the Supreme Court, or alleging that the Chief Justice or a justice of the Supreme Court is unable to discharge the duties of judicial office by virtue of a mental or physical disability, shall be filed with the Office of Disciplinary Counsel. The Office of Disciplinary Counsel shall review the grievance to determine whether an ethical violation is alleged. If the grievance alleges an ethical violation, the Office of Disciplinary Counsel promptly shall forward the grievance to the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, elected pursuant to section 2501.03 of the Revised Code, for further proceedings in accordance with Section 4 of this rule. A grievance alleging misconduct by a former Chief Justice or justice of the Supreme Court shall proceed pursuant to Gov. Bar R. V or division (A) of this section.

Section 3. Application of Rule.

A grievance or complaint involving alleged misconduct by a justice, judge, or judicial candidate; all proceedings for the discipline of a justice, judge, or judicial candidate; and all proceedings with regard to the alleged inability of a justice or judge to discharge the duties of judicial office by virtue of a mental or physical disability shall be brought, conducted, and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of this rule and Gov. Bar R. V. Sections 4 and 6 of this rule contain provisions for adjudicating grievances and complaints against a justice of or candidate for the Supreme Court. Section 5 of this rule contains provisions for adjudicating campaign grievances and complaints against a candidate for a trial court or court of appeals.

Section 4. Grievances Against Supreme Court Justices.

(A) Initial review.

(1) Upon receipt of a grievance from disciplinary counsel, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall select, by lot, a three-member review panel from among the judges designated pursuant to division (A)(3) of this section. The review panel shall contact the justice named in the grievance for a written response within fourteen days to the allegations contained in the grievance. Upon request, the review panel may grant a reasonable extension of time for the justice to provide a response.

(2) Upon receipt of the response, or if no response is received, the review panel shall review the grievance and any response to determine whether good cause exists for further investigation of the grievance. Within thirty days of the receipt of the response or expiration of the fourteen-day response time if no response is received, the review panel shall report its determination in writing to the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals. Upon request of the review panel and for good cause shown, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals may extend the time for reporting its determination. If the review panel determines that good cause does not exist for further investigation, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall notify the justice named in the grievance and the grievant of the determination and of the dismissal of the grievance.

(3) In January each year, the administrative judge of each appellate district shall designate the appellate judge senior in service and one additional appellate judge from the district, neither of whom shall be the presiding judge of that district or the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, to be eligible for service on a review panel pursuant to division (A)(1) of this section. The administrative judge shall advise the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, in writing, of the designation. Appointments shall be for a calendar year, and a judge may be reappointed to subsequent terms on the review panels.

(B) Appointment of special disciplinary counsel; time limits.

(1)(a)(i) If the review panel determines that good cause exists for further investigation, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall appoint a special disciplinary counsel to conduct further investigation of the allegations contained in the grievance and any other misconduct discovered during the course of investigating the grievance. The special disciplinary counsel shall possess the qualifications set forth in division (B)(3)(a) of this section and shall be appointed from the list maintained by disciplinary counsel pursuant to division (B)(3)(c) of this section.

(ii) When appointing a special disciplinary counsel, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals may communicate with the prior Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals to determine whether special disciplinary counsel has been appointed to investigate another grievance against the same justice. If special disciplinary counsel has been appointed, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals may appoint the same special counsel to investigate the new grievance.

(b) The investigation of a grievance by special disciplinary counsel shall be concluded within sixty days from the date the grievance is transmitted to special disciplinary counsel, and a decision on disposition of the grievance shall be made within thirty days after the conclusion of the investigation. The Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals may extend the time to complete an investigation, not to exceed one hundred fifty days in total, in the event of pending litigation or appeals, an unusually complex investigation, including the investigation of multiple grievances, time delays in obtaining evidence or testimony of witnesses, or for other good cause shown. No investigation shall extend more than one hundred fifty days from the date the grievance is transmitted to special disciplinary counsel.

(c) The time limits set forth in this rule are not jurisdictional. No investigation or complaint shall be dismissed unless it appears that there has been an unreasonable delay and that the rights of the respondent to a fair hearing have been violated. An investigation that extends beyond one hundred fifty days from the date the grievance is transmitted to special disciplinary counsel is prima facie evidence of unreasonable delay.

(2)(a) Upon completion of the investigation, special disciplinary counsel shall either report to the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals that the grievance should be dismissed or prepare and file a formal complaint with the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, in the name of special disciplinary counsel as relator, alleging that substantial, credible evidence exists to believe that the justice named in the grievance engaged in misconduct. The complaint shall be submitted with investigatory materials sufficient to demonstrate the existence of substantial, credible evidence to support the allegations of the complaint. The materials shall include any response filed by or on behalf of the respondent and may include other reports, summaries, depositions, statements, exhibits, or any other relevant material.

(b) If the special disciplinary counsel recommends the grievance be dismissed, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall notify the grievant and the justice named in the grievance of such determination in writing.

(c) Unless the justice against whom the grievance has been filed agrees otherwise, the matter shall remain private unless and until a formal complaint is filed. Nothing shall prohibit a special disciplinary counsel from communicating with another special disciplinary counsel who has been appointed to investigate a grievance against the same justice.

(3)(a) The special disciplinary counsel shall be an attorney admitted to the practice of law in Ohio, or an attorney licensed and in good standing in any other state and admitted pro hac vice by the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals. The special disciplinary counsel shall not be an employee or appointee of the Supreme Court or have any interest in a case pending before the Supreme Court while serving as the special disciplinary counsel. The special disciplinary counsel shall have the power to issue subpoenas and cause testimony to be taken under oath.

(b) The special disciplinary counsel shall be paid expenses and reasonable compensation, upon approval of the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, from the Attorney Services Fund. The rate and method of compensation, including the payment of compensation while the investigation is ongoing, shall be established by the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals in the appointment letter or order. The Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals may authorize the special disciplinary counsel to employ support staff as necessary to assist in the investigation and any subsequent proceedings and may authorize payment of fees, compensation, and expenses from the Fund.

(c) Disciplinary counsel shall maintain and provide to the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals in January each year a list of attorneys who satisfy the qualifications for appointment as special disciplinary counsel and who are otherwise available to accept such appointment. Disciplinary counsel may supplement the list with additional special disciplinary counsel, as necessary.

(C) Proceedings on the formal complaint; probable cause review; appointment of hearing panel.

(1) Upon receipt of a formal complaint filed by the special disciplinary counsel, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall appoint a probable cause panel, unless the justice named in the complaint has executed a written waiver of an independent probable cause determination. The probable cause panel shall consist of three former commissioners of the Board of Professional Conduct, none of whom was appointed or reappointed to the Board by the justice named in the complaint. Upon review solely of the complaint and the investigatory materials submitted pursuant to division (B)(2)(a) of this section, the probable cause panel shall make an independent determination whether probable cause exists for the filing of the complaint. Within thirty days of the appointment of the probable cause panel, the panel shall issue an order to the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals certifying the complaint, in whole or in part, or dismissing the complaint and investigation in its entirety.

(2) If the order dismisses the complaint and investigation in its entirety, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall notify the grievant, justice, and special disciplinary counsel. If the order certifies the complaint in part, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall provide a copy of the order to the special disciplinary counsel with instructions to prepare and file a new complaint that conforms to the determination of the probable cause panel. If the order certifies the complaint in its entirety, or upon receipt of a new complaint prepared as a result of a partial certification of the probable cause panel, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall do both of the following:

(a) Appoint a hearing panel of three fulltime trial court judges selected, by lot, from the list of judges developed and maintained pursuant to division (C)(6) of this section. The judges chosen shall be from separate appellate districts and shall not be from the district in which the respondent resides. The Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall designate one of the judges to serve as the chair of the hearing panel.

(b) Immediately forward the formal complaint to the director of the Board of Professional Conduct, who shall send a copy of the formal complaint by electronic service address or certified mail to the respondent. The complaint shall be accompanied by a notice requiring the respondent to file, within twenty days after the mailing of the complaint, the respondent's answer and serve copies of the answer on special disciplinary counsel and the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals. For good cause shown, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals may grant an extension of time to file the answer.

(3) With reasonable notice to the parties, the hearing panel shall hold a hearing on the complaint. The hearing panel chair may grant requests for continuances for good cause shown. All hearings shall be recorded by a court reporter and a transcript included in the record of the proceedings.

(4) If at the end of the evidence presented by the relator, a unanimous hearing panel finds that the evidence is insufficient to support a charge or count of misconduct or a finding of disability, the panel may order the complaint or count be dismissed. If at the end of all evidence, a majority of the hearing panel finds that the evidence is insufficient to support a charge or count of misconduct, the panel may order the complaint or count be dismissed. The hearing panel chair shall give written notice of the action taken to the director who shall notify the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, relator, and respondent. There shall be no appeal from an order dismissing the complaint or count of misconduct.

(5) If a majority of the hearing panel determines, by clear and convincing evidence, that the respondent is guilty of misconduct and a disciplinary sanction is merited or that the respondent has a mental or physical disability that makes the respondent unable to discharge the duties of office, the hearing panel shall file a certified report of the proceedings, its findings of fact, conclusions of law and recommended sanction with the director. The report shall include the transcript of testimony taken and an itemized statement of the actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the proceedings. The director shall send a copy of the hearing panel's report and recommendations to the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals and serve a copy of the report and recommendations, by electronic service address or certified mail, on the relator and respondent. At the conclusion of all proceedings before the hearing panel, the director shall file the record of such proceedings with the Clerk of the Supreme Court as provided in division (E)(1) of this section.

(6) In January each year, the administrative judge of each appellate district shall designate two fulltime trial judges from within the appellate district to be eligible to serve on a hearing panel appointed pursuant to division (C)(2)(a) of this section. In selecting the trial judges who shall be eligible for appointment to hearing panels, the administrative judge shall consider legal and judicial experience, gender, race, ethnicity, and other relevant factors. Before designating a judge as eligible for selection to serve on a hearing panel, the administrative judge shall contact the judge to determine the judge's availability for potential service. The administrative judge shall advise the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, in writing, of the designations.

(D) Appointment of adjudicatory panel; proceedings before the panel.

(1) Upon receipt of the hearing panel's report and recommendations, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall convene an adjudicatory panel of thirteen appellate judges to review the report and recommendations. The adjudicatory panel shall consist of the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, who shall serve as chair of the panel, and the presiding judge of each appellate district. If a presiding judge of an appellate district is unavailable to serve on the adjudicatory panel, the appellate judge of the district who is senior in service on the court of appeals shall replace the presiding judge.

(2) The adjudicatory panel shall issue the respondent an order to show cause why the report and recommendation of the hearing panel shall not be confirmed and a disciplinary order entered. The Clerk shall serve notice of the show cause order by electronic service address or certified mail on relator and respondent.

(3) Within twenty days after issuance of the show cause order, the respondent or relator may file objections to the report or recommendations of the hearing panel with the Clerk. The objections shall be accompanied by a brief in support of the objections and proof of service of copies of the objections and the brief on all counsel of record. Twelve copies of the objections and brief in support shall be filed. Answer briefs and proof of service shall be filed within fifteen days after briefs in support of objections have been filed. Twelve copies of the answer briefs shall be filed.

(4) If objections are filed, the adjudicatory panel shall promptly schedule oral argument on objections. After the hearing on objections, or if no objections are filed, the adjudicatory panel shall issue an order as it finds proper. Unless otherwise ordered, any disciplinary order or order related to the respondent's mental or physical disability shall be effective on the date the order is announced. The order may provide for reimbursement to the Attorney Services Fund of costs and expenses incurred by special disciplinary counsel, the panels appointed pursuant to this section, or the Secretary.

(5) The Clerk shall mail certified copies of the order to the parties. The Supreme Court Reporter shall publish the disciplinary order in the Ohio Official Reports.

(E) Miscellaneous provisions.

(1) Upon the filing of a formal complaint, the director of the Board of Professional Conduct shall serve as clerk for the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals and the hearing panel. The relator and respondent shall file all pleadings, motions, documents, and other material with the director, who shall transmit the documents and materials to the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals and the appropriate panel. The Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals and panels shall transmit all orders, opinions, and other materials to the director for service on or distribution to the parties. The director shall maintain a complete record of the proceedings and, upon conclusion of the proceedings before the hearing panel, certify the record, including exhibits, to the Clerk of the Supreme Court who shall maintain the certified record. The Clerk shall serve as clerk for any adjudicatory panel appointed pursuant to division (D) of this section, and all proceedings before the adjudicatory panel shall be conducted as provided in this section and the Rules of Practice of the Supreme Court of Ohio. Upon request, the director and Clerk shall assist the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, hearing panel, and adjudicatory panel with ministerial matters such as scheduling a location for hearings and securing a court reporter.

(2) Any matter, a procedure for which is not specifically set forth in this rule, shall be handled in the manner set forth in Gov. Bar. R. V.

(3) If a judge selected to serve on any panel appointed pursuant to Section 4 of this rule is unable to serve because of the existence of a disqualifying factor, the judge shall notify the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals and provide written justification of the grounds for disqualification.

(4) The Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals and any judge appointed to serve in any capacity pursuant to Section 4 of this rule shall continue to serve in the appointed capacity until the conclusion of the matter as long as the judge continues to hold judicial office. If the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals leaves judicial office while a matter commenced under this rule during the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals' tenure remains pending, the successor Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall assume responsibility for that matter. If a judge appointed to serve in any capacity under this rule leaves judicial office while a matter to which the judge was assigned under this rule remains pending, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall designate a judge to replace the former judge in the same manner as the original appointment was made.

(5) A party may allege the existence of bias, prejudice, or other disqualifying factor on the part of a judge appointed to serve on a panel pursuant to Section 4 of this rule by filing a timely motion with the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals. If the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals finds the existence of bias, prejudice, or other disqualifying factor, the judge named in the motion shall be disqualified, and the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall designate a judge to replace the disqualified judge in the same manner as the original appointment was made.

(6) Any judge selected to serve on any panel appointed pursuant to Section 4 of this rule shall be reimbursed from the Attorney Services Fund for travel expenses incurred in association with the judge's service on the panel. Reimbursement for travel expenses shall be made as provided in the Supreme Court Guidelines for Travel by Court Appointees. A judge shall request reimbursement by submitting a signed Travel Expense Report form and required receipts to the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals. The Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall indicate approval of the reimbursement and submit the approved form to the Administrative Director of the Supreme Court.

(7)(a) The Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, any former commissioner of the Board of Professional Conduct, or any judge appointed to serve on a panel pursuant to Section 4 of this rule may contact the director of the Board of Professional Conduct for procedural guidance relative to responsibilities set forth in this rule. Special disciplinary counsel may contact disciplinary counsel for procedural guidance relative to responsibilities set forth in this rule.

(b) To assist in the execution of these responsibilities, the director and disciplinary counsel shall prepare and make available education materials that provide general procedural guidance to the individuals identified in division (E)(7)(a) of this section. The education materials may include written guidance, sample correspondence, orders, and entries, and information regarding the retention of records pursuant to Section 8 of this rule.

Section 5. Campaign Conduct; Enforcement and Sanctions.

Notwithstanding Section 2 of this rule, a grievance that alleges a violation by a judicial candidate of Canon 4 of the Code of Judicial Conduct during the course of a campaign for judicial office shall be brought, conducted, and disposed of in accordance with this rule and Gov. Bar R. V, as modified by this section. All other grievances shall be brought, conducted, and disposed of in accordance with this rule and Gov. Bar R. V.

(A) Filing of grievance; preliminary review; referral.

(1) A grievance that alleges a violation by a judicial candidate of Canon 4 of the Code of Judicial Conduct during the course of a campaign for judicial office shall be filed with the director of the Board of Professional Conduct. Within two days of receiving the grievance, the director shall conduct a preliminary review. If the director is unable to conduct the preliminary review because of a conflict of interest, the director immediately shall forward the grievance to the chair of the Board who shall conduct the preliminary review. If the chair has a conflict of interest or is unavailable, the director immediately shall forward the grievance to the vice-chair of the Board who shall conduct the preliminary review.

(2) If a judicial candidate files a grievance alleging a violation by his or her opponent of Canon 4 of the Code of Judicial Conduct and the judicial candidate and his or her opponent have signed an agreement with a voluntarily organized judicial election monitoring committee that provides for expedited consideration of alleged violations of Canon 4 of the Code of Judicial Conduct, the director may refer the grievance to the monitoring committee for consideration. The director shall not refer the grievance to the monitoring committee if the judicial candidate has exhausted the remedies provided for under the agreement.

(3) The director, chair, or vice-chair may refer a grievance to the Office of Disciplinary Counsel under any of the following circumstances:

(a) The probable cause panel fails to find probable cause that a violation of Canon 4 has occurred;

(b) The director, chair, or vice-chair determines that it is unnecessary to handle the grievance on an expedited basis;

(c) The complainant withdraws the grievance or fails to prosecute the complaint before the Board hearing panel, five-judge commission, or Supreme Court.

(B) Probable cause panel; filing of formal complaint. If, after reviewing the grievance, the director, chair, or vice-chair determines that the grievance is facially valid, that the Board has jurisdiction over the matters raised in the grievance, and that the grievance should be considered on an expedited basis, the director immediately shall appoint three members of the Board to determine whether there is probable cause that a violation of Canon 4 has occurred. No member of the probable cause panel shall be a resident of the judicial district from which the grievance arose. The probable cause panel shall determine probable cause within five days after the grievance was filed and may conduct a hearing to facilitate the determination of probable cause. If the probable cause panel finds probable cause that a violation of Canon 4 has occurred, the panel shall notify the director who shall prepare a formal complaint based on instructions from the probable cause panel.

(C) Appointment of hearing panel; proceedings on the formal complaint.

(1) Within three days of the probable cause determination, the chair shall appoint three members of the Board to conduct a formal hearing on the complaint. One member of the hearing panel shall be a nonattorney member of the Board, and no member of the hearing panel shall be a resident of the judicial district in which the complaint arose. The director shall forward a copy of the complaint to each member of the hearing panel, the complainant, and the respondent.

(2) The chair or director may designate former members of the Board to serve on probable cause and hearing panels appointed pursuant to divisions (B) and (C)(1) of this section.

(3) Within five days of its appointment, the hearing panel shall conduct a formal hearing limited to the allegations contained in the complaint. The complainant and respondent shall be notified of the hearing. Within five days after conclusion of the hearing, the hearing panel shall issue a report of its findings and recommendations. If the hearing panel determines by clear and convincing evidence that a violation of Canon 4 has occurred, the hearing panel's report and the record of the proceeding shall be certified to the Supreme Court, together with a recommendation as to whether the complaint should be considered on an expedited basis and whether the five-judge commission appointed pursuant to division (D) of this section should issue a cease and desist order pursuant to division (D)(3) of this section. If the hearing panel determines by clear and convincing evidence that a violation of Canon 4 has occurred, the hearing panel shall determine whether the respondent previously has been found to have violated Canon 4 and include the determination in its report.

(D) Appointment of five-judge commission; proceedings before the commission.

(1)(a) Within five days of receiving the report, the Supreme Court shall appoint a commission of five judges as provided in section 2701.11 of the Revised Code and Gov. Jud. R. III. The following shall apply to the commission:

(i) Each judge shall have served four or more years on the courts of this state;

(ii) If the respondent has declared his or her candidacy as a member of a major political party, as defined in section 3501.01 of the Revised Code, three of the judges shall be of the same political party as the respondent and two of the judges shall be of a different political party as the respondent;

(iii) No judge shall be a candidate for judicial office during the duration of the commission.

(b) The judge having the longest total service on the courts of this state shall serve as the chair of the commission. After receipt of the notice of appointment and the receipt of the report, the chair promptly shall fix a day, time, and place for the first meeting of the commission.

(2) The commission shall expedite its consideration of the report and may make its determination from the report of the hearing panel, permit or require the filing of briefs, conduct oral argument, or order the hearing panel to take additional evidence. If the commission concludes the record supports the hearing panel's finding that a violation of Canon 4 has occurred and there has been no abuse of discretion by the hearing panel, the commission may enter an order that includes one or more of the following:

(a) A disciplinary sanction against the respondent;

(b) An order enforceable by contempt of court that the respondent cease and desist from engaging in the conduct that was found to be in violation of Canon 4;

(c) A fine imposed against the respondent;

(d) An assessment against the respondent of the costs of the proceeding;

(e) An assessment against the respondent of the reasonable and necessary attorneys fees incurred by the complainant in prosecuting the grievance.

(3) Upon recommendation of the hearing panel, motion of the complainant or Sua sponte, the commission may enter an interim cease and desist order as it finds reasonable and necessary prior to making the determination required by division (D)(1) of this section. The interim order shall be based on the commission's preliminary review of the report and recommendation of the hearing panel and any record made before the commission.

(4) A party may allege the existence of bias, prejudice, or other disqualifying factor on the part of a judge appointed by the Supreme Court to serve on a commission of five judges by filing a motion with the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. The motion shall be filed within three days of the date the party receives notice of the appointment of the commission. If the Chief Justice finds the existence of bias, prejudice, or other disqualifying factor, the judge named in the motion shall be disqualified, and the Supreme Court shall appoint a substitute judge.

(E) Appeal of sanction.

The respondent may appeal a sanction issued by the commission to the Supreme Court. Notice of appeal shall be given by the respondent to the secretary of the commission and the Supreme Court within twenty days after the respondent's receipt by electronic service address or certified mail of the commission's order. After receipt of the notice of appeal, the Court may issue a briefing order and other appropriate orders.

Section 6. Campaign Conduct; Enforcement and Sanctions; Justices and Candidates for the Supreme Court.

A grievance that alleges a violation by a judicial candidate for the Supreme Court of Canon 4 of the Code of Judicial Conduct during the course of a campaign for judicial office shall be brought, conducted, and disposed of in accordance with this section.

(A) Initial review.

(1) The grievance shall be filed with the director of the Board of Professional Conduct. The director shall promptly forward the grievance and any supporting documentation to the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, elected pursuant to section 2501.03 of the Revised Code. Within two days of receiving the grievance, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall review the grievance to determine whether the grievance alleges a violation of Canon 4 by a judicial candidate for the Supreme Court and whether the grievance should be considered on an expedited basis. If the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals determines that no Canon 4 violation is alleged or that the grievance should not be considered on an expedited basis, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals may dismiss the grievance and notify the grievant of such determination or proceed with a review of the grievance pursuant to Section 4 of this rule.

(2) If the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals determines that the grievance alleges a violation of Canon 4 by a judicial candidate for the Supreme Court and that the grievance should be considered on an expedited basis, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall immediately refer the grievance to a three-member review panel selected, by lot, from among the judges designated pursuant to Section 4(A)(3) of this rule. The review panel shall contact the judicial candidate named in the grievance for a written response, and determine from the grievance and the response whether probable cause exists that a violation of Canon 4 occurred. The review panel may conduct a hearing to facilitate the determination of probable cause. The probable cause determination shall be made within five days after the grievance was received by the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals.

(3) The review panel shall notify the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals of its probable cause determination and, if applicable, instructions regarding the preparation of a formal complaint. If the review panel finds no probable cause, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall dismiss the grievance and notify the grievant. If the review panel finds probable cause, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall instruct the director of the Board of Professional Conduct to prepare a formal complaint in accordance with the instructions of the probable cause panel and in the name of the grievant as relator. Upon preparation of the formal complaint, the director shall serve a copy of the formal complaint on the relator and respondent and transmit a copy to the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals.

(B) Appointment of hearing panel; proceedings on the formal complaint.

(1) Within three days of a determination that probable cause exists to support the preparation and prosecution of a formal complaint, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall appoint a hearing panel of three fulltime trial court judges selected, by lot, from the list of judges developed and maintained pursuant to Section 4(C)(5) of this rule. The judges chosen shall be from separate appellate districts and shall not be from the district in which the respondent resides. The Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall designate one of the judges to serve as the chair of the hearing panel.

(2) Within five days of appointment and with notice to the parties, the hearing panel shall hold a hearing on the complaint. All hearings shall be recorded by a court reporter and a transcript included in the record of the proceedings.

(3) Within five days of the conclusion of the hearing, the hearing panel shall prepare and issue a report of its findings and recommendations. If the panel finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that the respondent violated Canon 4 of the Code of Judicial Conduct and that a sanction for such violation is warranted, the hearing panel's report and the record of the proceedings shall be certified to the director, together with a recommendation as to whether the complaint should be considered on an expedited basis and whether the five-judge commission appointed pursuant to division (C) of this section should issue a cease and desist order pursuant to division (C)(2) of this section. If the hearing panel determines, by clear and convincing evidence, that a violation of Canon 4 has occurred, the hearing panel shall determine whether the respondent previously has been found to have violated Canon 4 and include the determination in its report. The director shall provide a copy of the hearing panel's report to the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals and send a copy of the hearing panel's report to the relator and respondent by electronic service address or certified mail.

(C) Appointment of five-judge commission; proceedings before the commission.

(1) Within five days of the issuance of the hearing panel's report, the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall appoint a commission of five appellate judges, chosen by lot from separate appellate districts. The Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals shall designate one of the judges to serve as chair of the panel. If the commission concludes the record supports the hearing panel's finding that a violation of Canon 4 has occurred and there has been no abuse of discretion by the hearing panel, the commission may enter an order that includes one or more of the sanctions set forth in Section 5(D)(1) of this rule. Upon recommendation of the hearing panel or sua sponte, the commission may enter an interim cease and desist order as it finds reasonable and necessary prior to making a determination on the hearing panel's report. The interim order shall be based on the commission's preliminary review of the report and recommendation of the hearing panel and any record made before the commission.

(3) The commission's determination and any cease and desist order shall be sent to the director who shall provide a copy to the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals and serve a copy on the respondent and relator by electronic service address or certified mail. (2) If a judge selected to serve on any panel appointed pursuant to Section 6 of this rule is unable to serve because of the existence of a disqualifying factor, the judge shall notify the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals and provide written justification of the grounds for disqualification.

(3) The Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals and any judge appointed to serve in any capacity pursuant to Section 6 of this rule shall continue to serve in the appointed capacity until the conclusion of the matter as long as the judge continues to hold judicial office. After a determination of probable cause has been made, the grievance, formal complaint, report of the hearing panel, order of the five-judge commission of five judges, record of the proceedings, and all hearings shall be public.

(B) If any panel or commission of judges determines that the grievance was frivolous or filed solely for the purpose of obtaining an advantage for a judicial candidate, the panel or
