JOURNAL ENTRY
DECLARING DEFENDANT A VEXATIOUS LITIGATOR

BENDER, J.

For the reasons set forth in a decision filed October 31, 2011, Plaintiff's petition for a declaration that defendant Ronald Bloodworth is a vexatious litigator pursuant to R.C. 2323.52 is sustained.

Therefore, pursuant to R.C. 2323.52(D)(1)(a)-(c), it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that defendant Ronald Bloodworth is PROHIBITED from:

1. Instituting any civil legal proceedings in the Ohio Court of Claims, or in any Court of Common Pleas, Municipal Court, or County Court in this State, without applying to and obtaining from this court prior leave to proceed; [R.C. 2323.52(D)(1)(a)]
2. Continuing any legal proceedings already instituted in the Ohio Court of Claims, or in any Court of Common Pleas, Municipal Court, or County Court in this State, prior to the entry of this order, without applying to and obtaining from this court prior leave to proceed; [(R.C. 2323.52(D)(1)(b)]
3. Making any application in any legal proceedings already instituted in the Ohio Court of Claims, or in any Court of Common Pleas, Municipal Court, or County Court in this State, other than an application to this court for leave to proceed. [R.C. 2323.52(D)(1)(c)]

"A court of common pleas * * * shall not grant a person found to be a vexatious litigator leave for the institution or continuance of, or the making of an application in, legal proceedings in the court of claims or in a court of common pleas, municipal court, or county court unless the court of common pleas that entered that order is satisfied that the proceedings or application are not an abuse of process of the court in question and that there are reasonable grounds for the proceedings or application." R.C. 2323.52(F)(1).

SO ORDERED.
