Petition for the Great Writ of Habeas Corpus
Petitioner's Claim is:

Petitioner, Harry E. Briscoe's 5th, 6th, 8th, 13th, and 14th Constitutional Rights have been violated because there was no valid complaint ever first filed involving the trial courts jurisdiction concerning the convictions the Petitioner is currently serving time for. (Case No. CR-487410) The charging officer attempted to sign his hand on psuedo complaint, but also failed to supply a properly attested to, signed and sworn "Jurat", rendering psuedo complaint a paperwriting of no legal effect. (See attached psuedo complaint and affidavit) Also, the psuedo complaint and affidavit does not have a file-stamped certification so as to invoke the trial courts jurisdiction. The universal application that's mandated under the 6th Admendment is without a formal accusation constituting a legal documentation.

No Court ever had Jurisdiction of any Subject-Matter, and Petitioner is being held unlawfully, and Illegally inside of Warden LaShann Eppinger's Prison Governed by the Superiority of the State of Ohio. Petitioner also incorporates O.R.C. 2725.24.

Petitioner's Relief is:

That the Petitioner, Harry E. Briscoe be Granted the Writ Pursuant to O.R.C. 2725.06

Petitioner has stated his Claim, and his Relief

Respectfully Submitted,
